

James Price McDuffie

December 30, 1954 - March 27, 2003

James McDuffie, son of Earl and Shirley Robinson, was born on December 30, 1954 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on March 27, 2003. He received his education at Baltimore City Public School. He then continued his education at CCB. He was currently employed with the City of Baltimore. He joined the New Pilgrim Baptist Church, where he was baptized and was a member of the youth choir. He married the former Rosemary Venable. James was an undiscovered comedian; you were always laughing with him anytime you were in his company. He was a big kid at heart; the kids actually came to the house to ask for him. He enjoyed being with them. James had several friends and was a stranger to you but once. He will truly be missed. His Aunt Annie Mae preceded him in death. He leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Rosemary; his parents, Earl and Shirley Robinson; his godsister, Mary Brockington; a brother, John McDuffie; his grandmther, Reatha Robinson of Hamstead, North Carolina; six aunts, Lula McDuffie, Susan Thomas of Baltimore, Aldonia Brown of New Jersey, Bernice Callier of Wilmington, North Carolina, Bessie Jenkins of Florida, and Eddie Mae Clendining of New York; one uncle, James Callier; a very devoted cousin, Paul Timson; a special longtime friend, Darlene Alexander; a devoted friend, Pamela Brown; a host of other cousins, relatives and friends.

“ I would like the family to know that James is gone...but not forgotten. My name is Michelle; James long lost little sister. I currently live in Tampa, FL and have not been in contact with the family. I would like for his parents to know that I am thinking of them and truly miss my big brother. James will always be my big brother. Love always, Michelle ps. I am so, so sorry.##imported-begin##Michelle Cannady##imported-end##
