

James W. Pullet

May 15, 1956 - March 24, 2013

James William Pullet, of Ada Mae Logan and the late James Gough, born on May 15, 1956 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life suddenly on March 24, 2013.

He received his education in Baltimore City Public School System, where he attended Paul Laurence Dunbar School. After high school James served honorably in the National Guard for several years. After being discharged from his military service, James became a “jack -of-all-trades.” He was the carpenter, electrician, mechanic, cable man, landscaper, HVAC technician – you name it, James could do it. He was known to say “I'm qualified, I'm just not certified.

Although he was never married , James always had a way with the ladies. He was quite charming and in 1978 was blessed with son, Lamont, who preceded him in death.

James was always the life of the party. It wasn't a party until Buckwild/Hondo showed up. “You sold me out for chicken change” - James Brown, “The Big Payback” was his favorite song. He was the original family DJ. Basement parties on Orleans Street and cookouts that never seemed to end. He was more than a son, father, brother, uncle – he was a great friend and will truly be missed.

He leaves to mourn: his mother, Ada Logan: three sisters, Lisa, Gwen and Cindy; two nephews, Marvin and Keith (nephew, L.B. Preceded him in death); five nieces, Shanel, Ashley, Tia, Michelle and Felisa; and a host of great-nieces, - nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ Dear Family and Friends,

It is understood that the pain, the grief, and the feelings of helplessness can seem unbearable when you lose a loved one. During these times, you can find comfort in God's Word. The Bible helps us to understand how Jehovah and Jesus feel about death. Jehovah promised that "He will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore."—Revelation 21:4 Jesus said that "all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29) People who are to be restored to life right here on earth will be reunited with their loved ones. The dead will not be raised to life in a world filled with war, crime, and sickness, because God's purpose is that the whole earth be made into a paradise. They will have an opportunity to live forever on this earth in peaceful and happy conditions. What a loving God and such a wonderful hope for you and your loved one.

*Sincerely,
A Bible Student*

“ To the Family and Friends of James W. Pullet,

I express my deepest condolences to you all at this time. I can surely sympathize with the pain you are going through because like everyone else here on this Earth I have lossed a loved one in death. God's Word describes death a sting becaus it causes us so much pain and grief. Wouldn't it be great if we could just eliminate this enemy today. Well although we can not, it willl be gone in the future. At Revelation 21:4 we read, " And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Jehovah sets out this hope before us and it is no doubt very encouraging. What a wonderful thing it will be for death to be a thing of the past. My heart goes out to you at this time and your family is definitely in my prayers.
