

James Edward Quick

April 11, 1935 - May 11, 2017

James Edward Quick, son of the late Myzon Quick and Silas Quick was born on April 11, 1935 in Bennettsville, South Carolina. He was called home on May 11, 2017.

At an early age James moved to Baltimore, Maryland to pursue his dreams. He worked in construction, primarily as a Cement Finisher. On June 29, 1974 James married Edna Marie Brown of Goldsboro, North Carolina who preceded him in death.

James was a man of many talents, a “jack of all trades” to say the least. James prided himself on his trade, which made him a very successful businessman. James had various hobbies, cooking was his passion, visiting family members, but most of all he loved to just hang out with his brothers and the fella’s “just shooting the breeze” as only he and Uncle Willie would say.

James loyalty, support and adoration of all his family, friends and community members remained steadfast and true. He was always willing to lend a helping hand. James was an extremely loving, nurturing and giving person. He loved his family and would often spend time with them to laugh, talk, and enjoy life. He shared his life experiences and wisdom with his family and friends.

James was preceded in death by: his sisters, Lucy Dease and Bobbie Jean Ivery; his brothers, Willie Quick, Archie Quick and Charlie Quick.

He leaves to mourn: two daughters, Tracey R. Quick and Deborah Ann Brown; two sons, Reginald Edward Quick and Gregory James Brown; daughter-in-law, Charnina Quick; grandchildren, Nikia Nicole Harrison, Lance Reginald Harrison, Jr., Trey Nicholas Quick, Delano Devon Quick, Shamera Quick, Regina Quick, Arina Quick, K'Shawn Quick, Shyrmale Brown and Shyrmale Brown; great grandchildren, Kazmin Turnage, Kelsey Weir, Trey Nicholas Quick, Jr., Charles Nichols and Domonick Washington; two sisters, Margaret Quick and Mattie Clay-Dukes (Roosevelt); one sister-in-law, Ernestine Quick; one special niece, Letitia Quick and one special nephew, Jimmy Dease; and a host of nieces and nephews who loved him dearly.
