

James Raymond Scott

February 6, 1912 - February 23, 2006

JAMES RAY SCOTT was born on the sixth day of February 6, 1912 to the late Paul and Matilda Scott in Prospect, Virginia. James departed this life on February 23, 2006 after several years of sickness. James was reared in Prospect, Virginia and educated in its public school system. At an early age he left home and went to Ohio to work for several years. Due to the illness of his mother he returned to Virginia where he was joined in Holy Matrimony to Celia Berkley, who preceded him in death. From this union was born one son, James Robert. James Sr. was kind, thoughtful, loving and hard-working. He was always willing to extend a helpful hand to his family and friends. He was known for his humor and ability to make everyone laugh. He leaves to mourn: his son, James Robert; six grandchildren, Doretha, Davon, Christina, Tiffanie, Nijai and Amani; two great-grandchildren, Tony and Lewis; two sisters, Ellen Scott (Washington, D.C.) and Sarah Wiggins (Philadelphia, Pa.); and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ My condolences to your family. Death is never a friend but always an enemy and Almighty God promises at 1 Cor. 15:26 to remove our enemy. We are also promised the hope of a resurrection at Acts 24:15, "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous." This shows us how much God cares for us.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ So very sorry to hear of the recent loss of your loved one. Many would say he lived a pretty long life by today's standards, but it was God's purpose for our loved ones to live forever and nver die. Such crushing pain he never meant for us to go through. So he has purposed to put an end to this enemy that has plagued the human family for such a long time. 1st Cor.15:26 tells us, "As the last enemy, death will be brought to nothing." Also Daniel 12:2 tells us, "And there will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up." So the ressurection is a sure hope we can put faith in, because it is a promise from our loving heavenly father. May you have peace.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ Hello ! Scott's ! May I send my condolences to all. When we lose a dear loved one in death it breaks the circle of life for us. Mr. James was 94 years young, the bible has something to say about long life at Ps.90:10, some person will live to be 70 years old and other because of speical mightiness 80 years. Just think what life would be like to live forever, hard to imagine. The time is coming when many of our dear loved ones dead will be resurrected as Jesus said at John5:28. I am looking forward to that happening. May all the grandchildren and the rest of his family & friends cherish the happy time together. My fellow feeling, Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##
