

James Reginald Owens

January 17, 1961 - December 22, 2007

JAMES REGINALD OWENS, beloved son of Ann Farmer and the late James Owens, was born on January 17, 1961. He departed this life on December 22, 2007, at the Johns Hopkins Hospital, after a lengthy illness. James received his education in the Baltimore City public schools. He worked on numerous jobs throughout the Baltimore Metro Area. James (known as Itchy) always had a kind word for others and a great smile. He actively participated in sports, especially basketball. Throughout his life, he enjoyed listening to the oldie-but-goodie music. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be missed by everyone who knew him. Having come to the end of his journey in his earthly vessel, James leaves to mourn: his mother, Ann Farmer; stepfather, Essie Lee; two sons, James Reginald Owens, Jr. and Reginald James; five sisters, Vanessa Farmer, Marcella Turner, LaVerne Farmer, Chantay Lee and Beverly Moore; half sister, Vanessa Lee; three brothers, Anthony Farmer, LaMont Lee, Donnell Lee; half sister Vanessa Lee; half brother, Kevin Lee; one sister-in-law, one brother-in-law; a devoted friend, Kimberly Williams; a host of other relatives and friends.

Tribute Wall

“ James Reginald Owens

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Please accept my sincere sympathy for your great loss. Death truly saddens our hearts, and the pain really cuts deeply. I know, because I have lost many family members. But I endure, because I know I have the hope of seeing them again in the resurrection. While on earth Jesus resurrected many people. You can read in the bible how he resurrected his good friend Lazarus, as well as a 12-year old girl. John 11:38-44, and Mark 5:38-43. Jesus will bring many back to life in the near future, because his father, Jehovah, has given him all authority to do this. John 5:26-29. As the scriptures promises, they will hear his voice calling them, and the dead will come out of the memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May you find much comfort in the promise of the resurrection, and may it help you to cope in the days ahead.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ Hi ! Owens ! I am so sorry of your recent loss of 2 months of Mr. James .Our heavenly father is there is give comfort, 2 Cor 1:3, in all our tribulations today that we may go . Imagine the joy to be our when the dead are resurrected in the near future.Every one will feel like John 11:22-44 say. Refuge is with our creator of all things. May all the cherished times spents with James stay close.##imported-begin##Lillian Crosby##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM