*In the desert a fountain is springing,
In the wild waste, there sits a tree,
And a bird sits in solitude singing,
Which speaks to thy spirit of thee.*

In Sympathy,

Irene Reynolds

“ *Old friend. It's been years since I've seen you, but that didn't matter. We were always the same when we met. Lots of love and prayers.
Over 50 years of friendship. Rest easy my friend. To the family, please keep your eyes on God. He has you during this time of bereavement.*

“ It's with a heavy heart that I write this, and even more sorrow because I wasn't able to be there in person to share this moment with my family.

The Trent Family, nephew Marquise (Lil' Kenny), wife Shana and family sends love and heartfelt prayers back home to the Reynolds family..

We love you all, we miss you all and pray God's grace gets you through the tough times.

I grew up knowing Uncle Cowboy as a CORE member of my family.. Him, his siblings, my Aunt Evelyn, Uncle Junie and Grandma Mary were foundational family to me as the older generation.

When you're young you kind of believe that people will live on for a longgggg time.. That they're almost immortal.. EVEN though you experience the deaths of other family members while growing up.. But as you get older you realize that we ALL have our time and no one knows when it is but God.

So do your best to enjoy your time here and be a blessing to others in the process...

I'll always remember that distinct voice that my uncle had, his STORIES for everything, his LONG conversations about topics that had a wisdom and authority to them, the gold chain he would wear, and many other things...

My Uncle Cowboy ..

Love you mane.. Wish I was there to touch you and see you one last time..

To the family.. Again.. I Love You All 🙏
We Love You All..

From Texas 🇺🇸 with Love 🙏🙏

“ To the Family of the late Bro. James Lee Reynolds,; we, The Williams Family wish to wholeheartedly express our deepest sincerest sympathies in the passing of your beloved family member. Death is never an easy issue. However, the bible assures us that in 1 Cor. 5:8 which says, that to be absent from the body is to be present with the Lord. Therefore, family you can rest assure Bro. James is resting with the Lord. We're asking God to bless you, comfort, bring peace, guidance, love, peace and strengthen each of you. Reynold's Family, remember all of the joyful moments and fond memories of him will allow you all to have him with you at all times in your hearts and Spirit. Love you all. Yours in Christ, Deacon Sheila Williams/Family
