“ To the family. I would like to extend my deepest condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. At this very grievous time it could seem extremely difficult to find comfort, but there is a comforter who soothes us in such a way that no human ever could. The Bible calls Jehovah God, “the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all of our tribulation.” (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4) And what’s more his word gives us further relief and a beautiful hope. At John chapter 5, verses 28 and 29 we read of a promise that is very soon to be realized. It speaks of an event in which all who have fallen asleep in death will live again. Yes, a resurrection from an unconscious state, to life right here on a paradise earth. (Psalm 37:10, 11) May you find comfort as you reflect on this wonderful occasion that is soon to come.##imported-begin##Sausha S.##imported-end##

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences for your loss. Please allow the holy scriptures to be a source of comfort to you, because the bible contains all of the answers we need to help us to understand death, but more importantly it contains the wonderful promise that soon God will do away with death forever. Isaiah 25,8. To learn more concerning Jehovah's wonderful promise please read Acts 24:15, John 5:28,29, Rev 21:3-5, Daniel 12:2, and Isaiah 65:17. One day there will be no more pain or sorrow on this earth, and the dead will bse raised back to life. May that promise sustain you at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##
