

James Otha Scott Sr.

May 2, 1928 - August 30, 2018

On August 30, 2018, in Lawrenceville, Georgia our loved one, James Otha Scott Sr. was called to his heavenly home.

James Otha Scott Sr., son of the late Eddie and Indiana Scott was born May 2, 1928 in Stony Creek, Virginia.

He was preceded in death by four brothers; Horace, Charlie, Prince Edward, and Junius Scott; two sisters, Martha and Inez Scott.

He received his formal education from Sussex County Public Schools.

James accepted Christ in his life at an early age and was baptized at Fifth Street Baptist Church in Richmond, VA.

Retiring in 1991, James worked for many years as a heavy equipment operator for the State of Virginia.

In 1951, he married the former Hazel Ann Green, from this union three children were born.

James was truly a people's person who enjoyed life; he could hold a conversation with anyone. He was a very giving person who cherished and loved his family. He enjoyed chewing tobacco and Luther Vandross songs. He leaves to cherish his memory two beloved sons, James Jr. of Richmond, Andre L. (Minnie) of Kingstree, SC; one devoted daughter, Patricia A. Scott of Lawrenceville, GA; five grandchildren, Shaketa Vinson of Petersburg, VA, Christopher T. (Mary) Scott of Stone Mountain, GA, LaMicha Scott of Atlanta, GA, NaKiesha Scott of Richmond, and Marissa Scott of Kingstree, SC; two great grandchildren, Kristen and Olivia Scott of Stone Mountain, GA; one sister, Louise Black of Richmond, VA; a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.
