

James Sherman Dorsey

July 12, 1947 - April 18, 2004

James Dorsey, Jr., son of James S. Dorsey, Sr. and Blanche Gross, was born July 12, 1947 in Maryland. He suddenly became ill January 2004 and departed this life on April 18, 2004. James was reared by his father and his aunt, Mrs. Mary Dorsey Evans. He graduated from the public School system in Calvert County, Maryland. He received an Associate of Arts degree at the Community College of Baltimore and graduated from the Police Academy in 1979. James retired from the police force with the State of Maryland. Until his illness he worked with the Baltimore Convention Center as a security officer. He married the former Eula Mae McLeod, and out of this union two daughters were born. James was a devoted father to his children. He was considered a kind and generous man by both family and friends. He accepted Jesus Christ as his Savior and is now in a better place. James S. Dorsey leaves to mourn: his daughters, Jetheda and Keshia Dorsey; two sons, Devon J. Dorsey and Anthony J. Jackson; aunts, Mrs. Mary Dorsey-Evans, Mrs. Shirley Ray, and Mrs. Virginia Brashears; two grandchildren, Shantel T. Williams and Christopher I. Dorsey, nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##
