

James Allen Singletary Sr.

January 7, 1946 - December 12, 2012

JAMES ALLEN SINGLETARY affectionately known as “Singletary” was born January 7, 1946 in Baltimore, Maryland to James Henry Singletary and Seymour Virginia Thompson. Singletary was one of five children. His parents, two brothers Marvin “Mert” Wise and Daniel “Tweet” Singletary, preceded him in death.

Singletary received his education through the Baltimore City School System and graduated from Carver Vocational High School. Singletary held numerous jobs within the City of Baltimore including working at the Baltimore Country Club, Sparrows Point and driving a bus and recently cab. There was no place in Baltimore that Singletary didn’t know how to get to and was always available to give you directions.

In 1966, Singletary met and married his high school sweetheart and the love of his life Grace Lee Barnes on September 3, 1966. Out of their union two sons were born, James “Tank” Singletary, Jr. and Keith Singletary. Singletary enjoyed life. His family and friends were most important. Singletary has maintained long-term relationships including the best man at his wedding Thomas Nelson.

Singletary was very outgoing with a strong personality. Singletary enjoyed horseracing, playing cards, socializing with family and friends and traveling. His favorite place to visit was Montreal, Canada for the Jazz Festival. Singletary was an avid grocery shopper. He clipped coupons and made sure he knew where all the sales were. Singletary loved Gladys Knight and was a great hand-dancer. His nieces and nephews will never forget his favorite line “who’s your favorite uncle?”

His leaves to cherish his memories: his wife Grace Singletary; two sons, James Singletary, Jr. and Keith Singletary; two sisters, Chisa Shango and Tina Bland; seven grandchildren; four sisters-in-law and five brothers-in-law; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, great-nieces and –nephews, and a host of other family and friends.

“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. May you find comfort in family and friends at this difficult time. The Bible gives hope that soon our Creator Jehovah God will end all suffering, pain, and death. And we have the hope of being reunited with our loved ones that have passed away. Rev 21:4, John 5:28-29. There will be many of those asleep in the ground of dust who will wake up to indefinitely everlasting life.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 4yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
