

James R. Slaughter

October 1, 1939 - September 27, 2014

James Randolph Slaughter (better known as Butch or Tony), son of the late James Slaughter and Mary McIntyre, was born on October 1, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on Saturday September 27, 2014.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public Schools. He had given his life to Christ and had been serving Him for decades.

James made numerous friends wherever he went, he always had a friendly word or a joke or two to tell. James joined the Air Force in October 1956 and remained through March 1961 as a Third Class Airman, Honorably Discharged. He loved to play pool and had more than enough trophies to prove it. James moved to Chicago three decades ago to look for work and ended up building a new life for himself. James leaves behind a couple of dear friends who meant a great deal to him: Clyde, Rich, Jamie, Gene, Tom and Denis. James will be greatly missed by everyone who knew him. He was a true and loyal friend and devoted Father, Son, Brother, Uncle, Cousin and Grandfather.

James' ex-wife Janice Slaughter Lindley (beloved friend for 38 years) has been by his side during the good and bad times. Janice has been a true and loyal friend to James when he was hospitalized and stayed by his side in his time of need. She has been a rock for James, and his kids greatly appreciate and respect her for standing by their dad.

He leaves to mourn: his children, daughters Renee' Bell, Ingrid Slaughter Johnson, Inger Slaughter, Michelle Slaughter, Marlena Slaughter and Stacy and Tonya Slaughter; his sons, James Slaughter II, James Slaughter Jr.; and grandkids, India, Indria, Jibrill, Alexis and Antaeus; nephews Derrick, Marvin, Charles; and nieces, Shawn and Danean.
