

James T. Satterfield

January 7, 1945 - February 11, 2006

JAMES T. SATTERFIELD, SR. departed this life at Good Samaritan Hospital on Saturday, February 11, 2006, after a lengthy illness. He was born on January 7, 1945, and was the eldest son of the late Jesse and Elnora Satterfield. James accepted Christ as his personal Savior at an early age and was baptized at Zion Baptist Church. He rededicated his life to Christ five years ago. James was educated in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Dunbar High School in 1963. While employed at Bethlehem Steel Corporation he received certifications as an electrician and an electronic motor repair technician. He retired with thirty-six years of service. James was married to Georgia Howell Satterfield for forty-two years. From this union four children were born, James T. Satterfield, Jr., Elnora Satterfield, Patricia A. Ferguson and Sandra J. Myles. James enjoyed family reunions, football, playing cards, blasting his oldies but goodies in the basement, shooting pool and hanging "down the hill" with the guys. He was the founder of his multi-family club - J.P.S. He was a cheerful and caring person, who made numerous friends wherever he went. James leaves to cherish his memory: his wife, Georgia Satterfield; son, James Satterfield, Jr.; daughters, Elnora Satterfield, Patricia Ferguson and Sandra Myles; brother, Jesse Satterfield; sister, Fannie Smith; six grandchildren, Shelton Satterfield, Durell Harris, Justin Satterfield, Misha Myles, Elyssa Ferguson and Eugene Ferguson, III; and a host of uncles, aunts, cousins, nieces, nephews and friends.

“ to the family of mr. satterfield I send my condolences. I just stopped by to give a message of hope to all of you who loved and cared about him. at John5:28,29 the Bible gives us the hope of the resurrection of those we have lost in death. and at Revelation 21::3,4 there is the promise that death, sickness nor pain will ever be again. along with that our loved ones will be raised to a wonderful life on a paradise earth with all badness gone, never to return. this scripture can be found at Psalms 37:9-11,29. and at Psalms 72:12-14,16 we can see how Jehovah cares for mankind and will continue to do so. His requirements for those of us who would like to be there at that time can be found at Proverbs 3:5,6. if, after reading these verses, you find that you would like to learn more - please contact me at my e-mail address: kic2@verizon.net. in the meantime, " may Jehovah bless the way you act. ..." “ To the family and friends: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ My sincere sympathy to your family. May God's promises at 1 Cor. 15:26 to remove our enemy death bring you comfort. Also, Isa. 26:19 says our dead ones will live, they will rise up. I'm sure you would agree the hope of the resurrection is very encouraging especially when we experience the loss of a loved one. May you find comfort in his promises.##imported-begin####imported-end##

“ So very very sorry that you have lost your loved one in death. There is no pain which compares to losing someone we love, and sadly sickness or some other tragedy continues to take our loved ones away. Jehovah God promises that one day "No resident will say, "I am sick." Isaiah 33:24. Also he promises to swallow up death forever, and to wipe the tears from all faces." Isaiah 25:8. May you find comfort in his promises as well as a hope to keep alive in your heart of being reunited with your loved one again.##imported-begin##R Johnaonr##imported-end##

“ No one can give you comfort but God. The lost of your husband and father is like a open wound of the heart. We can look forward to Isaiah 33:24 "and no resident will say I am sick". There are excellent scriptures in the Bible book of Isaiah 45:18, 55:11. You will also find comfort at Rev 21:3-4 and John 5:28-29. Please read these scriptures and may Jehovah bring you comfort in your time of greive.##imported-begin##Phyllis Duvall##imported-end##
