

James T. Wilson

May 13, 1933 - October 11, 2001

James Thomas Wilson was born on May 13, 1933 in Danville, VA to the late Albert Wilson and Connie Wilson-Glass. He departed this life on October 11, 2001 in Baltimore, MD. James was affectionately known to his family and friends as “BOJACK”. He was educated in the Danville Public School System. Upon finishing school his family moved to Baltimore, MD. Bojack worked for the City of Baltimore’s Water-Waste Water Department for 41 year. He was very well known in East Baltimore in later years he moved to West Baltimore never forgetting his roots in East Baltimore. James was a very out going person. To ask his family they would say he was always helping others, friendly, giving and very protective of his family. If “Bo” couldn’t get along with you, there was no hope for you. In 1987 James gave his life to God through public baptism. “Bo” was a working member of the Strawbridge United Methodist Church in Baltimore, MD. Two children proceeded him in death, Lynita and Johnny. He leaves to mourn, six children, Lenard , Curtis, Roy, Wayne, Gregory, Barbara; grand- children and great-grandchildren, one brother, Ernest A. Glass; two sisters, Barbara Jones and Bertha Bell; one brother-in-law, Tom Jones all of Baltimore, MD., two aunts, Christine Broadway and Nancy Medley; two uncles, John Lee Williams and Wilson Medley of Patterson, NJ., and a host of relatives and friends; two devoted friends, Ms. LuWanna Street and Rev. Pamela M. Griffin.
