

James R. Tabron

June 19, 1923 - December 31, 2012

JAMES ROBERT TABRON, son of the late James and Matilda Tabron, was born on June 19, 1923 in Halifax County, North Carolina. He was one of ten children. After spending a short time in Good Samaritan Nursing Home, he quietly departed this life on Monday, December 31, 2012. He was eighty-nine years old.

He completed his education at McIver High School in Halifax County, North Carolina. He followed his childhood sweetheart Ida Belle Pullen to Baltimore, Maryland in 1943. On December 23, 1944 James married Ida and they were blessed with thirty-one years of marriage. From this union two sons, James (June) Jr. and William (Bill) were born.

James gave his life to Christ and was baptized at an early age. After moving to Baltimore, he joined and became a lifelong member of Zion Baptist Church. He attended Sunday School and was a loyal member of the Usher Board for many years. His wife and sons were also devoted members of the church. He loved his Zion Baptist Church family and made good, lasting friends there.

James worked at Bethlehem Steel Company for twenty-nine years and retired in 1969. His favorite ways to pass time was bowling, traveling and the fellowshiping with his friends. He had a great love of poetry and could easily recall verses from poems he learned in his youth. He often recited limericks.

Funny or not, he would laugh heartily and ask, "Did you get it?"

He leaves to cherish precious memory: two devoted sons, James R. Tabron III and William A. Tabron; two loving grandchildren, Nikkida B. Tabron and James R. Tabron IV; devoted goddaughter, Sharon Eaton; brothers, Curtis Tabron, Fred Tabron and J. D. Tabron; sister, Nannie Williams; sisters-in-law, Amelia Tabron, Pauline Tabron and Dorothy Tabron; and brother-in-law, Johnnie Williams.
