

James H. Taylor

June 13, 1927 - March 22, 2012

JAMES H. TAYLOR, better known as “Babe,” son of the late Hannah and Percy Taylor, was born on June 13, 1927 in Norlina N.C. and departed this life on March 22, 2012.

He moved to Baltimore, MD at an early age and received his education at Dunbar High School. From there, he enlisted into the military service where he remained until 1951. He then became employed as a truck driver for many years, even owning his own business for a short time (Taylor's Truck Cleaning & Lubrication Company). He was a lifelong, faithful member of Faith Baptist Church from an early childhood.

Babe met and married the late Ruth Wilmore with her son, Gary. He made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted family man. To everyone, he was a real “Babe.”

He leaves to mourn: his brother, Robert Taylor; niece, Robin Oliver; godchild, Toya Lee; special friend, Irene Stewart; other nieces, nephews, and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

*To you Babe, a dear and true friend and the best mentor one could ever hope for. I am trulysaddened that I did not get to say good-bye with a big hug as we always did. You have been and meant so much to my family and myself for so very long. We will miss you dearly but we also will remember you forever. With much love BB and Jane Davis

BABE, for all that you have meant to us and for all that you have done for us I offer my sincerest thanks. Although they seem empty now that you have left us they are deeply felt. No mere words could ever express how saddened I feel realizing that you have gone from this world and I didn't even get to say goodbye or enjoy the big bear hug we had when we met and when we departed each others company. It really hurts, but I can hear you saying "Hang in there B, things will be okay." And I truly know that they will because when you said it they always, always were. Though you may be gone from this world you will never never, never be gone from my heart and mind. Babe, please rest in peace and thank GOD for letting be a part of my life and the lives of the many others whom you touched with yours. AL (BB) DAVIS and JANE April 8,2012
