

James Thomas Wilkins

June 2, 1936 - December 5, 2008

James Wilkins was born on June 2, 1936 to the late Johnnie and Annie Bell Solomon of Henderson, North Carolina. He moved to Richmond, Virginia at an early age and gained employment with Henrico County School System until he retired in 1993 after twenty eight years of service. James accepted Christ at an early age. He was passionate about gardening and landscaping. He loved working outdoors and dedicating his time to yard work. He was a caring and compassionate friend to all who knew him. He loved people and was very outgoing. James loved to joke and leave you with a smile. He leaves to cherish his precious memories, his loving wife, Delores Wilkins of forty nine years; one devoted daughter, Brenda Johnson; three sons; Marvin Johnson (Cleo), James Green (Cynthia), and James T. Wilkins (Kelly), one sister; Nannie Ruth Wilkins; two brothers; Melvin Wilkins (Sally) and Robert Wilkins (Ella); mother-in-law, Hattie Eaton; three brothers-in-law, Clarence Eaddey, William Eaton (Mary) and Ronald Eaton, five grandchildren, among them a devoted grandson, Lamont A. Johnson; three great grandchildren and a host of nieces, nephews and cousins. One devoted friend, Eugene Glass.
