

James Vernon Brooks

August 7, 1950 - December 24, 2009

Mr. James Vernon “Jive” Brooks, Jr., of Richmond, VA, son of Alma T. Brooks and the late James V. Brooks, Sr. was born on August 7, 1950 in Hanover County. He departed this life peacefully among family and friends on December 24, 2009. He was preceded in death by four brothers, Alfonso Brooks, Clifton Brooks, Steward Brooks, and Ocsar Brooks. James Jr. accepted Christ as at early age at New Chestnut Baptist Church. James Jr. loved his family and friends. He loved fishing, hunting, and gardening. He leaves to cherish his loving memories three sisters, Mattie, Mildred, and Polly Brooks; two brothers, John L. (Tina) and Archie D. Brooks; two aunts, Sally Morton and Lillian Brooks; six nieces; four nephews; two great-nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends, one devoted Grover Wingfield. The battle is over now and God has called him home. Jive, God had not forgotten you. He will do what he said he would do. He will be sorely missed by all people who were touched by his life.

“ To Polly Brooks and the family of James V. Brooks, Jr. I wish to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your son, brother, and friend. Please know that Jehovah God is a God of Comfort. May his holy spirit embrace you all and give you the "power beyond what is normal" to endure this time of sadness. At His appointed time God promises that one day "sickness and death will be no more." (Matt. 6:9,10; Rev 21:3,4) You are in my thoughts and prayers.##imported-begin##Jacqueline Jones##imported-end##

“ To The Family of James Vernon Brooks, Jr.: Please accept my sincere condolences on the loss of your love one. It seems unfair that death has the power to take away someone we love. The Bible is comforting in this regard. It promises that our loved ones now dead dead will indeed live again. You can read these words at John 11: 20-27. May you find comfort and strength in God's Word the Bible.##imported-begin##S. Brown##imported-end##

“ Death is something that we will never get use to because God's Word refers to it as 'the last enemy'. May you find comfort in knowing that our loving Heavenly Father Jehovah promises us that very soon, he will by means of his son Jesus bring our 'enemy to nothing' (1 Corinthians 15:26). What a wonderful day that will be!##imported-begin##Kevin Jackson##imported-end##
