

James W. Hill

April 4, 1921 - November 25, 2002

James E. Hill, Sr., son of the late Charlie and Lettie Brown Hill, was born April 4, 1921 in Chester, South Carolina. He peacefully departed this life at home to be with the Lord on Monday, November 25, 2002. He received his education at Chester County School in Chester, South Carolina. At an early age, James accepted Jesus Christ as his Lord and Savior at Mount Zion Baptist Church in Chester, South Carolina. He was united in holy matrimony to Ernestine Hanson in 1947. From this union five children were born Shirley, Ruby, James Jr., Linda and Anthony. His four brothers, Luther, Charlie, Willie and Samuel Hill preceded him in death. He was a veteran of the United States Army. He retired from Bethlehem Steel after thirty years of dedicated service. "Heavy," as his family and friends affectionately called him, was a quiet and gentle man, even though at times he could be feisty in a loving way. He had a warm, caring, loving and giving spirit. He loved children and children were always drawn to him. He was a devoted father and friend to his children. He will be truly missed by all of the lives that he touched, but never forgotten. He leaves to cherish his memory: Ernestine Hill; three daughters, Shirley Hamlett, Ruby and Linda Hill; two sons, James W. Jr. and Anthony Hill; four sisters, Mary Hanson, Jane Jordan, Bessie and Lettie Hill; one son-in-law, four sisters-in-law, four brothers-in-law, nine grandchildren, twenty-one great grandchildren, all of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of other relatives and friends who all realize that there is a great void in the circle.

“ The tears that dampen our eyes in time of mourning are tears of homesickness, tears of longing for our loved ones. But it is we who are away from home, not they! Death has been for them a doorway to an eternal home. They are still with us, lovingly and tenderly waiting for the day when we, too, will enter the doorway of our eternal home. It is such a mistake to see death as separation and nothing more. For us who believe, death is a preparation for eternal union with those we love, in peace and in joy.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##
