

James Warren Jr.

May 24, 1954 - October 30, 2019

JAMES WARREN JR., son of the late Margie Levant Warren and James Warren Sr., was born on May 24, 1954 in Ritter, South Carolina. The Lord peacefully called him home on October 30, 2019 after a brief illness.

“Jr.”, as he was called, received his education in the public schools of Greenpond, South Carolina and Baltimore, Maryland.

James received Christ at an early age while in South Carolina. Once relocating to Baltimore in 1968, he attended his Uncle George’s Church with his mother and siblings. He also attended Judah Praise Temple with his sister Jackie and later New Christian Memorial Baptist Church with his sister Jill.

He was a jack-of-all-trades. He loved to keep himself busy. He also loved to do moving and hauling. He worked at various hospitals buffing floors in his young years. Once retiring from Blue Ocean Apartment Complex where he worked in the maintenance department, he started JR Light Moving and Hauling Company.

James was preceded in death by his parents, James and Margie Warren; two sisters, Frances Galloway and Alma Matthews; and two brothers, John Henry and Sylvester Warren.

He leaves to cherish his memory: four children, Geanine WarrenBrown

(Anthony), James Richardson (Marquette), Jevol Richardson (Tiana) and Elijah Richardson; five sisters, Lillian Gelzer, Juanita Shorty (Lawrence), Janoise "Jill" Inabinett (Leroy), Gladys Warren and Jacqueline Warren Doughty (Charles); grandchildren, nieces, nephews and a host of other relatives and friends.
