

James A. Whitaker

June 1, 1943 - May 28, 2015

James E. Whitaker was born to the late Rayfield and Sallie Whitaker in Scotland Neck, North Carolina on June 1, 1943.

He received his education in the North Carolina Public School System. James (Bud) met Catherine (Sister Gal) in 1961, they dated for four years and were united in marriage for 49 years; and out of this union eight children were born.

They later moved to Baltimore where James was employed with Baltimore Concrete Plant known as Strescon. He was a faithful employee for over 37 years.

He loved hanging out at the bingo parlor and with his friends. James made numerous friends wherever he went and will be sincerely missed by everyone who knew him. He was always a true friend and a devoted husband, father and grandfather.

He departed his life, after battling cancer, on May 28, 2015.

James (Bud) leaves to mourn: his loving wife, Catherine; three daughters, Tanya, Brittany and Yarnee; five sons, David, Carlton, Amos, Dejuan, and Bryant; eight grandchildren, Najah, Destiny, Deniyah, Kevon, Brielle, Eric, Brea and Napoleon; sister, Betty Jean; and a host of nieces, nephews, other relatives and friends.

“ So sorry about your lost. But no time is the right time when we lose someone dear to us that we love with all our heart. But remember thought of all the good times will always be with you. May God cuddle you in his arms and give you the Peace and Comfort that you need to get through this moment. You will never get over it but the pain will get better bye and bye with Prayer. Love, Your cousins, Nan Phillips and Family and William Phillips.<http://www.marichfh.com/obituaries/James-Whitaker-4/#/>

“ God looked around his garden and found an empty space. Then he looked down upon this earth and saw your tired face. He put his arms around you and lifted you to rest. God's garden must be beautiful, he only takes the best! You will be missed and always loved.
