

James Whittier Harris 'Jim'

July 9, 1923 - March 31, 2005

James Whittier Harris, son of the late Joseph Whittier and Lucy Ann Fitchett Harris, departed this life on Thursday, March 31, 2005 at the Union Memorial Hospital, Baltimore, Maryland after a brief illness. He was born and reared in Middlesex County, Virginia. At an early age, Jim, as most people knew him, was baptized and joined Grafton Baptist Church, Hartfield, Virginia. He has remained faithful to his home church until his passing. Jim was educated in the schools of Middlesex County, Virginia. He graduated from Middlesex High School in June 5, 1941. Jim served his country as a World War II veteran. He moved to Baltimore, Maryland after he returned from the war. He met and fell in love with Mamie Lee McBryde. After a brief courtship, they married June 1, 1946. From this union, one daughter was born, Sandra Harris. Jim began working at Armco Steel in 1948. He retired in 1982 after 34 years of employment. Jim had many loves which included cooking, attending air shows, gardening (especially with his buddy, Wes) and sports. He loved the Baltimore Colts and more recently, the Baltimore Ravens football teams. Jim was an avid lover of crabs (ate them year round), watermelon and ham. He was very jolly and witty. He loved people and always kept you laughing. He really enjoyed family gatherings. To cherish his memory, Jim leaves to mourn: his devoted and loving daughter, Sandra Harris Bowles of Baltimore, Maryland; two sisters, Tiara H. Quille of Baltimore, Maryland, Roberta H. White of Deltaville, Virginia; two sisters-in-law, Theresa Harris of Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, Miranda Smith of Greensboro, North Carolina; two brothers-in-law, Sterling C. White of Deltaville, Virginia, Junius Smith of Greensboro, North Carolina; grandchildren, Aaron Bowles and Dana Bowles of Baltimore, Maryland; and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. He also leaves two devoted friends, Wes McGhee and Petey Wiggins of Baltimore, Maryland.

Tribute Wall

“ James Whittier Harris 'Jim'

March 25, 2023 at 10:25 AM

“ James Whittier Harris 'Jim'

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ My condolences to the family on the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible promises you will soon see your loved one in a resurrection on earth. (John 5:28,29). Also, the Bible promises a time when there will be no more sickness or death. (Rev. 21:3,4). May you be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son Jesus Christ have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future and our loved ones who have lost their life to our enemy death.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM