“ To The Wiley Family: When death separates family members, such great loss can result in deep sorrow. Even the perfect man Jesus gave way to tears when his friend, Lazarus, died even though he knew that he had the power and he intended to bring him back to life. Therefore, it is natural to experience sadness when death claims someone you love. The Bible assures us at Psalm 34:18 that God "is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves."###imported-begin###Chandra Murphy###imported-end###

“ Please accept my heartfelt condolences. Even though your loved one lived a long time, death is still a terrible blow to the family. The bible actually foretold the average life span of people in our day and age at Psalm 90:10 which says, "The days of our years are 70 years; and if because of special mightiness they are 80 years, Yet their insistence is on trouble and hurtful things, for it must quickly pass by, and away we fly. The bible certainly describes life to a t in this world. We live 70 or 80 years, sometimes 90 but it seems the older we get the more sicknesses we get. In man"s early history people lived for 700, 800, and sometimes 900 years. Methusaleh the oldest recorded living being lived to be 969 years old. Their life span was really closer to what God intended for us, which is everlasting life. Jehovah God will still fullfill his purpose to have a paradise world full of happy people who will live forever, not in sickness and pain; but in vibrant health and security. The book of Job says at Job 33:25: "Let his flesh become fresher than in youth, and let him return to the days of his youthful vigor." That scripture will soon be fulfilled, because this is Jehovah"s grand purpose. As for the dead, they too will share in that paradise, because Jesus will ressurect them from the dead. Jehovah has given him authority to do this, and one day they will hear his voice and come to life again. John 5:26-29###imported-begin###R Johnson###imported-end###
