

James Douglas Williams

August 14, 1985 - September 16, 2016

OUR BELOVED

James Douglas-Junius Williams was born on August 14, 1985 to Priscilla D. Williams and the late Jarvis P. Beckett. He was born in Richmond, Virginia. James was educated in the Richmond Public School System.

James accepted Christ at an early age. James was employed with the Forty-Two contractors company. James was a humble, loving father, son and friend. He played many roles and left an impression on those blessed to have met him. Everyone who has ever come into contact with him could never forget "his smile", his smile brightened up any room. James was a hard worker and did whatever he could to keep those he cared about very happy.

On September 16, 2016, James earned his wings and peacefully transitioned from this earthly world into eternal life. He was preceded in death by his father Jarvis P. Beckett, Maternal grandfather Fred Stevens Sr., and his brother Jarvis P. Williams. James leaves to cherish his memories and continue his legacy two daughters Jamesha and JaJonnae Williams; four sons LaJames, Jurquaze, Jaquan and Jamon Williams; mother Priscilla D. Williams; two sisters Jon-Leesa and Jon Metrius Williams; Maternal grandmother Martha A. Stevens; and a host of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

“ Just seems like yesterday,. My best friend. I will always hold Lj close in thought in my heart. Never have I met a man of his caliber. No matter how angry or mad I could have been all he had to do was SMILE.. .. NOT A WORD SPOKEN .HIS smile was the ereasr. I always thought Thank you was good manners, But anything James whether a meal, ride, or friendly conversation, we all need someone to listen, because he wad always helping everyone else and their situations, all the same he paid his way, no matter what you may have helped with. But the BIGGEST was his last words in parting. (I APPRECIATE YOU). THOSE WORDS ARE SOMETHING $ -- COULD NEVER BUY. AND NO MATTER HOW NEGITIVE I TRIED SPEAKING OF ONE OR SOMETHING. HE ALWAYS TURNED MY NEGITIVE THINKING INTO FINDING SOMETHING POSITIVE OUT OF IT. YOU'LL ALWAYS BE MY INSPIRATION AND YOUR MEMORIES WITH ALWAYS LIVE WITH IN ME. MY MALE ANGLELACHERYL KA REDZ

I search all over to find you to share memories. I found you but the time was too short. My heart is heavy I asked God why was it something I did wrong? I kept my promise and I lost you again. Maybe I just didn't do enough although I tried really hard. Missing you Cuzz!!!
