“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your dear loved one. The Bible gives a real hope of being reunited with loved ones who have passed away. Acts 24:15 lovingly declares "There is going to be a resurrection." May you receive much comfort and strength from the hope of the resurrection.

“ *To the family,
I am deeply sorry for the loss of your dear loved one. Death can be hard to cope with but fortunately we can draw comfort from the scriptures. One particular scripture is found at Isaiah 25:8, which says in part, "He (God) will swallow up death forever." One day soon, God will not only get rid of death, but He will also resurrect our dead loved ones. May this promise bring you comfort and peace during this time of need.*

“ 'You Must Be Born Again and See So Much' were two songs Jimmy was lead singer on the choir many years ago. He had a strong tenor voice. He was a great friend. I am so grateful for our last conversation on Pratt Street two summers ago. To the family: Trust God during your time of trail and testing. He is the Answer.
