“ Take comfort in knowing that Jehovah knows your pain and He can help you get through this difficult time. The Bible has comforting words for those who have lost a loved one in death, notice the thought found in Jehovah God's word the Bible at 1 Corinthians 1:3,4. My thoughts are with your family.

“ Mr. James was like a father to me wen he came into my life I was 12 years old .. He was a good person to be around. Always gave me good advice about finishing school.. He was outgoing and always was there when I needed him... My mother was the love of his life.. Even though my mother has a permanent disability that didn't stop him from taking her out places and spending time with her. Whenever you saw him my mother was right there.. He was there wen I graduated from middle school and high school.. He was just a good person all around.. I will miss him a lot and I will never forget him

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 5yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!

“ My father was a man who lived a full life doing things that made him happy. He spent the last 12 years of his life dedicating his life to God and being active in his church. He also loved in spending time with his family and just exploring the city. He had a great sense of humor and often took life in stride focusing on the positive. I am proud that he was my father and that I could count on him to keep me grounded. I know that he will be with my siblings and I as we mourn and celebrate life.
