

James C Williams Jr.

November 22, 1941 - December 30, 2021

James C Williams Jr., son of the late Emma Lee Harris and James Williams Sr., was born on November 22nd, and 1947 at Baltimore City Hospital in Baltimore, MD. He passed away in his sleep with his wife by his side, after a long battle with Alzheimer's disease. James Williams received his education from the Baltimore City Public School System. He attended the Baltimore City Community College. He enjoyed life and loved people. James loved cars and was ecstatic when he became employed at General Motors in September of 1978. He worked on the assembly line building cars and retired from General Motors after 30 years. James decided to work part time at his grandchildren's elementary school, Wellwood international, where he was loved by everyone. He met and married the love of his life, the former Vernita Davis, out of his union three children were born: Tara Williams, James Williams III, and Delvin Williams. James was a devoted husband and father who loved the Lord. He made numerous friends wherever he went. He loved music, singing, and spending time with his grandchildren. He loved to talk to anyone who would listen and he had a smile that lit up the room. He leave to mourn: his wife, Vernita Williams of 52 years, three children Tata Williams, James Williams III, and Delvin Williams: son in law Allen Knight; daughter in law Alvana Williams, sister in law Leslie Colston, two brother in laws Claude Colston and Vander Davis; three grandchildren Angelica Rawls, Taylenn Knight, Christopher Knight; and three great grandchildren Amaya, Elijah, and Aaliyah.
