

James Isaac Willis JR

June 19, 1951 - August 10, 2016

James Isaac Willis Jr., known as "Little Ike" or "Ike" to family and friends, was born on June 19, 1951 to Mattie Willis and James Isaac Willis Sr.

He graduated from Forest Park High School and worked at Jessup Correctional Institute MCIJ Facilities as a correctional officer, a job he loved very much, from the early 80's until his retirement in 2003.

Ike was a very outgoing person who loved to make people laugh and was always there for his family when they needed some help in moving. He enjoyed listening to live oldies but goodies music.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Mary Willis; son, Charles Willis; his cousin/godsister, Tondelayo Garnes; a devoted cousin, Larry Willis; his best friend, Booker Lee, along with a host of relatives and friends.
