

James Douglas Wilson

April 1, 1960 - October 19, 2013

James Wilson Sr. was born on April 1, 1960 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Murray and Corietta Wilson. He departed this life on Saturday, October 19, 2013 at Bon Secours Hospital.

James received his education at Baltimore City Public Schools where he was very active in sports. James was an extremely gifted basket ball player and received several trophies and awards playing with the Baltimore Neighborhood Basketball League (BNBL) and the Survival Project Basketball League.

James worked as a laborer for the Baltimore City Department of Recreation and Parks for several years. He married Ms. Latisha Dorsey and from this union came their two children Shameka Wilson and James Wilson Jr. He had a very special bond with his children and grandchildren and loved spending weekends with Meka and the kids.

James enjoyed spending time at home with his family; joking, playing cards, watching old westerns movies and of course having a few “happy” drinks. He would always find a way to make you laugh even when he was teasing you; as he always would do. If he asked you a question and you didn’t answer, James would answer it for you.

James life would seem too short to many, but those who were touched by him understood that the quality of existence far exceeds the quantity of time in which one lives.

Preceded in his death by his mother, Corietta, brother Anthony and father

Murry Sr.; He leaves to cherish his precious memories to his son James Wilson, Jr., daughter; Shameka Wilson, 7 grandchildren, Reakwon, Tyneka, Tinesha, Charles, Michael, James III and Camren; 2 sisters Betty and Carolyn Wilson, 4 brothers, Murry Jr. (Tyra), Earl Sr., (Neemah) Jeffery, and William Wilson, 19 Nieces & Nephews, 5 special aunts; Mildred Gardner, Elizabeth Green, Pastor Shirley McClellan, Peggy Wilson (Jimmy); and Alberta Scott, (Bobby); and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

“ To the family of James Douglas Wilson:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32).
