“ Dear Family: It was with much sorrow to learn of the passing of Peter. Having grown up on Rosewood Avenue with you was like living in a village where mothers and fathers treated all of the children as their own. What great memories we share... whether going to Byrd Park, playing up and down the street, or just sitting on each other's porches...it was a great time and place. Wishing you all peace and comfort during this trying time. Bright Moments and Much Love, Beverly Brown Payne
