

Mr. Jamie N. Phillips

September 21, 1959 - February 25, 2013

Jamie Norris Phillips, son of Elbert and the late Dorothy Mae Phillips, was born on September 21, 1959 in Baltimore, Maryland. He was the second youngest of six children. After a short illness, he departed this life on February 25, 2013. Jamie was a devoted husband and father. He married the love of his life, Valerie Ferguson on June 21, 1998. Their's was a very loving and special relationship. Valerie nurtured and cared for Jamie throughout his illness, lovingly making sure all his needs were met.

Jamie was a student of the Baltimore City Public School System, graduating with a degree in Heating and Air Conditioning from Carver Vocational-Technical High School. Immediately after graduation, Jamie entered the Baltimore City Police Academy. After completing his training, Jamie proudly served as a Baltimore City Police Officer for twenty-nine years until his retirement from the Police Department in 2007.

Motorcycling, listening to and singing "oldies but goodies", having family over for crab feasts, and football parties were things Jamie loved to do. His hobbies included telling his hilarious, side-splitting jokes, writing poetry, and raising critters (of the reptilian kind). But most of all, Jamie treasured the times spent with his son, "Little Jamie". They loved watching movies, joking with each other, vacationing, and playing video games together. They were inseparable.

He leaves to mourn his passing: his devoted wife, Valerie; one son from their union, Jamie N. Phillips II; sons, Sean A. Phillips and Stacey B.

Phillips; one daughter, Kierston J. Phillips; one stepson, Jamell L. Gaines; one daughter-in-law, Cynitha Phillips; two grandsons, Kylin K. Phillips and Jaylin D. Phillips; father, Elbert Phillips; three sisters, Veronica C. Brewington (Michael), Nina L. Bryant (Paul) and Denise Anthony (Roosevelt); two brothers, Tony R Phillips and El'LaVento Phillips (Kelly); mother-in-law, Florence Ferguson; two sisters-in-law, Wilda Mosley (Elliot) and Garnitha Ferguson; three brothers-in-law, Wallace Ferguson, Anthony Ferguson (Jacqueline) and Curtis Ferguson (Senora); and a host of nieces, nephews, relatives and friends.

He was preceded in death by his mother, Dorothy Mae Phillips.

“ To the family of Jamie N. Phillips:
Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ He came to my 2nd grade class to do a presentation about his career as a police officer and all of my classmates were so interested. I was so proud of my uncle. He always had my back. I will miss his wit and humor. Uncle Jamie the next time we meet it will be in paradise. I love you.

“ To the family of Mr. Phillips:

I am sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Phillips. May the memories of him help with your healing process.

The Bible speaks of a time when sickness, sorrow, pain & death will be a thing of the pass, Revelation 21:4.

I will keep your family in my thoughts & prayers.

Love,

Mamie A. Boyd - February 28, 2013 at 10:10 PM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
