

Mr. Jammie Cherry

November 21, 1929 - June 20, 2011

JAMMIE CHERRY, son of the late Andrew and Olivia Cherry, was born on November 21, 1929 in Enfield, North Carolina. He departed this life on June 20, 2011.

He received his education in the North Carolina Public School System, from which he graduated from Eastman High School on May 23, 1949. After graduating he worked on his family's farm from 1949-1951.

In 1951, he was inducted as a field clerk in the United States Army, and was Honorably Discharged in 1953. After several jobs, Jammie worked for General Motors as an Assembly Line worker where he would later retire.

He was united in holy matrimony to Zelma Cherry on July 14, 1962.

He was preceded in death by his sister Blanch Cherry Manley and his only child James Coley.

He leaves to mourn: his wife, Zelma Cherry; two sisters, Betty Edmonds and Bernestine "Tine" Johnson; two granddaughters, Sherlita and Rochelle Coley; six great-grandchildren; and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I'm so very sorry that your dear loved one passed away, May the hope of the ressurection be a great source of comfort to you in the days ahead. By means of the ressurection many of those who are in the ground of dust will wake up. Daniel 12:2. Yes, they will hear Jesus's voice and come out of those memorial tombs. John 5:28,29. May your cherished memories help you to cope in the days ahead,
