“ Dear Family of Jane Frazier, Through Monica, her sisters, and her daughter, I have had the privilege of feeling like I know you and knew Mrs. Frazier by hearing stories about your family. Mrs. Frazier was central to stories that were warm and humorous. Many of the stories were so good and so funny that they could have been published in Readers' Digest or some other magazine. It was clear to me that Mrs. Frazier was well-loved by many and appreciated for her lively, caring, generous spirit. I remember hearing about her birthday party and the wonderful tributes that were made to honor her. I never met her, but it's clear to me that she was a significant influence in your lives and was someone who had a way of making life more interesting and fun. I hope that your memories of her will bring you some comfort during this difficult time and I will keep you all close in warm thoughts and prayers. “ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.###imported-begin###Senita Swann###imported-end###
