

Jane Elizabeth Alexander

January 25, 1939 - January 14, 2006

JANE ELIZABETH ALEXANDER, daughter of Reverend Thurman S. Rhodes and the late Jean Jones, was born on January 25, 1939 in Baltimore, Maryland. Jane was raised by her grandmother, lovingly known as "Granny". She will join her and her late husband, Donald. God called our beloved Jane Home to her final resting place on January 14, 2006. She received her education at Frederick Douglass Senior High School in Baltimore. Upon graduation, she served as a United States Navy "Wave." She married now deceased, Donald Alexander on January 27, 1958, and out of this union four children were born, Robert "Donnie", Lorraine, Karen and Pamela "Pam." Jane was a strong, generous and creative person. She was a member of the Maryland Chapter of St. John Grand Lodge. She was a devoted wife, mother and grandmother. She cherished her family and never turned anyone away in need. In her spare time, she volunteered her skills. She was an avid bingo player and enjoyed the company of her six grandchildren, Shimere, Jamaul, Brandon, Chelsea, Bryan and Sierra, being an active participant in all their activities. Jane was a self-taught wedding apparel designer and seamstress. Many of her designs appear in today's bridal magazines. There wasn't anything she couldn't make. She was also a professional bowler and an AMF certified bowling coach-instructor, which allowed her to travel the United States. Jane also leaves to mourn: her father, retired Rev. Thurman S. Rhodes; his wife, Yyonette Rhodes; a dear aunt, Martha Steele; three brothers, Alfred Jones, Judge Thurman H. Rhodes, Sr. and Nathan Rhodes; four sisters, Dorethea "Dodie" Stewart, Pauline Jones, Rachel Briggs and Sarah Scribner; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins, other relatives and friends.

“ I wish to extend my sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Alexander. Death was not apart of God's original arrangement. One day soon by means of his heavenly kingdom he will eradicate death. One scripture of comfort is found at John 5:28,29 "Do not marvel at this, because the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out, those who did good things to a resuurection of life and those who practiced vile things to resurrection of judgement". I hope that your family will find this hope reassuring.##imported-begin##K.D. Smith##imported-end##

“ Hello Family & Friends, I am so sorry to hear of your loss and I am offering my condolences. The scriptures can be of great comfort to us all. I am reminded of the scripture at Revelation 21:3,4 where Almighty God, Jehovah says that he is going to wipe the tears from our eyes and death will be no more neither will mourning nor crying nor pain be any more. The Bible also promises that we will be able to see our dead loved ones again by means of a resurrection. (John 5:28,29) It is my hope that you will be comforted by these scriptures.##imported-begin##Sophia##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to hear about your loss. It is comforting to know what God’s Word says at Rev. 21: 3, 4--, “With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say: “Look! The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. And God himself will be with them. And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” May you find comfort in this.##imported-begin##M.Rasaki##imported-end##

“ Dear Family, Daily I think of the impact Jane had on my life, of her kindness to me during these past 27 years, of our last visits at the hospital, of our many telephone conversations during the years, of our conversations when she did not have much breath left, and of my Christmas gift which I will always treasure. Surely she left a strong, loving and meaningful legacy for all of us. God will sustain us and the void we feel can be soothed with wonderful, warm memories. No, she cannot be replaced for she meant too much, but we can go on, in hope of meeting her again someday. Remember that "FAMILY" was near and dear to her and should remain dear to all of us. Thank you for such a marvelous final celebration. With Love, Yyonette##imported-begin##Yyonette J. Rhodes##imported-end##

“ Death is a harsh and devastating interruption to life a precious gift of God. Yet in most of our lives today we see death as our final eventuality accepted by many. However our heavenly father Jehovah God, the giver of life promises that one day in our near future death will be no more. As Revelations 21:3-4 states “God will wipe every tear from our eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor out cry nor pain be anymore.” How truly happy we all will be not to ever be threaten by death because it is Jehovah God’s promise to us according to Psalms 37:29 for the righteous ones to live forever on earth. Another hopeful awaiting thought in our future is all those who have lost their lives to death or the lost of our love ones, Jehovah God says according to John 5:28,29 all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus voice and come out. Yes these ones will live again! We all can hold fast to this because Titus 1:2 states: upon the basis of hope of everlasting life, which God, who cannot lie promised before times long lasting. Such a comforting thought to know our having life forever was always Jehovah God’s promised purpose for us. My deepest sympathy to the family.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ To those who have sincerely sent their messages of condolence and remembrance for the life of Jane, we thank you all so deeply. Our earthly loss is true and not to be trifled with. There are people who come into your life and make an impact, Jane was that type of person (except I was the one to come into her life). Mommy could open a conversation with anyone, in any situation; That's a 'Gift'. She had a short yet full life and many interesting stories; we did not get to hear all about about growing up in Baltimore, her Naval exploits, Family/friends and the changes around us. Peace was her focus (I truly believe this). God has simply given us time to appreciate her impact on our lives and the stories to come more; (I think Mom and Dad are getting them in order now, with some help). I know I am not alone in my sorrow, but I also know joy can come again; just by REMEMBERING the days and times gone by when we were and will be together again. That day will come again. Thank you all for your love and support. Thank you God for the up bringing you gave Mommy to make her the person we all Love, Respect and saught and we thank God for her 'STRENGTH' (in many ways). Don't lose touch; remember she was 'The Contact' person too. My present tense Is proper above.###imported-begin###Pamela###imported-end###

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. John 5:25, 28, 29. Please be assured that God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the Alexander Family ! May the God of all comfort be with your family. I am sending my sincere condolences . Death affect all of us in one way or another. Knowing that our Heavenly Father cares make things a little easy to bear. There is no words that can convey the inner felling of a person when a love one die. Our heavenly Father knows can cares for your in you time of sorry. Jesus Christ felt the same way when his friend Lazarus died. Tears came to his face . Lazarus family were happy to have Jesus to comfort them. The bible have many scriptures that are uplifting such as Isa. 33:24, when no one will ever say they are sick, Isa. 25:6, death will be swallow up forever and tears gone from our faces. The greatest news of all Death gone forever. All families will never have sorry or grief from losing a dear love one in Death again. I send my deepest sympathy to you all and may the happy thoughts of your dear love ones stay in your hearts always. Sincerely Lillian Crosby.##imported-begin##lillian Crosby##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but know that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 Just think there will come a time not only will death be no more but Jehovah promises that no one will have to say I'm sick according to Isaiah 33:24. I feel the need to express these words of hope because so many of us today treasure the gift of life and we do all we can to maintain it to hold on to it. That is why it hurts so badly when our loved ones die. With so many of us desiring life today no matter how good or bad it is we still want life here on earth. No one looks forward to that time of death. That is why I am under obligation by the spirit and love of God to share that hope that is in our near future that the righteous shall inherit the earth and reside upon it forever according to Psalms 37: 29 along with the above stated promises on a paradise and peaceful earth. We all can hold true to this everlasting promise because Isaiah 55:11 states all the words Jehovah have spoken WILL NOT RETURN WITHOUT RESULTS. What a wonderful prospect for our future especially enlight of the fact that Hebrews 6:18 States of God, it is IMPOSSIBLE for him to lie.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ I am sorry to learn about the death of Jane. I'm sure that this must have been a difficult time for all of you. I am forwarding scripture that will comfort you. Psalm 90:10 says that the usual human life span is 70 or 80 years. This was true when Moses wrote but not so from the beginning. (compare Genesis 5:3-32.) Hebrew 9:27 says...It is reserved for men to die once for all time. This, too, was true when it was written but not the case before God passed judgement on sinful adam.##imported-begin##JT Nunnally##imported-end##
