

Janerio Keys

February 26, 1986 - August 2, 2012

Janerio J. Keys, also known as Nerio, son of the late Janerio Richardson and Beverly Felder, was born on February 26, 1986 in Baltimore, Maryland. He departed this life on August 2, 2012.

He received his education in the Baltimore City Public School System and graduated from Job Corps for Culinary Arts on February 3, 2003. He also graduated from Strive Skills Center in 2011. He enjoyed cooking, playing video games, talking on his cellular phone, but most of all rapping. He could rap freestyle at the age of eleven, as a result he just recently recorded a CD entitled, "Never Ending Saga."

Janerio was a very talented young man. He had a heart of gold. He had a smile that would light up any room. He was like a ray of sunshine. Janerio touched many people and will be truly missed.

Janerio leaves to cherish his memory: his mother, Beverly Keys; two sisters, Tamiko Keys and Tyree Richardson; four brothers, Dwayne and Harvey Keys, Jr., Dominic and Dashawn Richardson; four nieces, Shaquita, Daija, Takeya and Iyonna; six nephews, DeAunte', Davionte, Keith Jr., Khyrie, Khalil and Dominic Jr.; three aunts, Berdell Grooms, Theresa Wheeler and Delores Bolden; a host of other relatives and friends.

Janerio, it seems weird that you are no longer here with us. I remember not too long Tamika, Dwayne, and I were impatiently waiting your arrival. I can remember walking you to school in the mornings, making you do your homework, and listening to you rap for hours. My heart grieves because I wasn't able to say goodbye...but as grandma always said...."never say good bye but instead say so long....I will never forget the laughter and the love that you inspired in my life. I miss you more than words can express and know you are in a better place. I miss you lil cuz.....

Janerio I will never understand why you had to go but I know that God makes no mistakes. I never thought the last time I saw or spoke to you would be the last time. I didn't want to believe that you were gone until reality sat in. I didn't get to say goodbye. I will cherish the memories we shared while you were here with us. I truly miss you and will wait patiently until we meet again! I love you baby brother!

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom about 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous.”— ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
