“ Please accept my sympathy for your loss. Janet was my manager early in my career at SSA. May all be comforted by the wonderful promise at Revelation 21:4: "and he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more. Neither mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away."

“ Janet,

I remember when I first met you. You welcomed me and Taylor into the family right away with a bright smile, great food and lots of laughter from joking on Kyle...that southern hospitality:). I always knew I had the best mother-in-law. You didn't pass judgement; you listened and never got involved. You are truly missed! I will always cherish the times I spent with you and Frank. I watched you two show your love to the world and hope to emulate your relationship from here on out. Thank you for all your love. Rest in peace angel, your job here was well done.

*Love Always,
Carmen*

“ Dear Charnelle,
I am by your side every night through my prayers. I imagine that losing a Mother is one of the most difficult things you will go through. I did not have the fortune of meeting your Dear Mother but I know that she was one of the most giving and understanding Angels to have walked this earth. May you find peace and comfort in knowing that your grief is shared by so many of us. God bless you and your family.

“ Mom-

I love you more than you could ever know.

Wait, you did know and that is the only thing giving me strength right now.

You never hurt or disappointed me, but only brought me joy all of my 45 yrs. You are my mom, my best friend and the most beautiful person I have known my whole life. And I was lucky to call that person mom.

I know you hated to see me cry, but know that the majority of my tears will be tears of all the joy you have given me and that I will miss.

But I promise mom to be and stay strong for you.

And spend the rest of my life making you as proud of me as I have always been of you.

I love you my angel. Rest now knowing that you left us all with nothing but LOVE.

Janet was obviously dearly loved, and it is clear after meeting with yourselves and your family, there is no doubt in my mind that she has a unique and loving soul, and made a most beautiful contribution to this world.

It was a true pleasure to meet you all, and may God give you great strength, bless you and keep you wrapped safely in his love at this difficult time. My warmest regards. Sakeena Winter.

“ Dear Butler-Thomas Family;

While reading the online obituary, I observed the death of your love one.

Death is an enemy to all mankind and who can understand it? It can and dose have a devastating effect on you and your family as well.

Can you imagine reading a newspaper with the headline: "When Death Is Swallowed Up Forever..." What a wonderful time that will be. Revelation 21:4 offers this hope, it states, "And he (God) Will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will morning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." What a comforting hope.

If you would be interested in learning even more, I can send you a little tract that is entitled "What Hope For Dead Loved Ones"? I am not selling anything or conducting any business of any sort, not now or ever. I am just showing Neighborly love like what (Mark 12:31) mentions. If you have any questions please feel free to contact me at this e-mail address here (b.molina56@yahoo.com).

I offer my sincere condolences and my the God of peace be with you and your family.

*Sincerely Yours,

“ Dear family,
I am so sorry about your loss. I know this is a difficult time for you. I wanted to give you some comfort from the Bible. A lot of people want to know if there is any hope for their dead loved ones. The Bible teaches us that most people who have died will be resurrected. Jesus promised us in John 5:28,29

“ To Frank, the children and family. My heart and prayers are with you. Janet was such a sweet person. I will always have a special place in my heart for her. Our Vegas trips and our mother's day boat trips. I will always treasure the memories of a beautiful person that has been a wonderful part of my life . May her beautiful smile and loving spirit stay in your hearts and memories forever as it will mine.

God Bless all of you, Peace and love

“ My deepest condolences to the family of Janet Butler-Thomas. I am so sorry to hear of the death of your loved one. The Bible tells us "And the last enemy, death, is to be brought to nothing."
