“ To the Family: Please accept my sincere condolences. It seems so unfair that death has the power to take away our love ones. The bible assures us that "Jehovah is near to those that are broken at heart; and those who are crushed in spirit he saves." Please continue to draw comfort from the holy scriptures. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. “ Aunt Diya, I know that you loved me and supported me in everything I wanted to do. Sometimes when we loose someone we have regrets that we did not say what we meant to say. But I don't have any regrets I told you that I loved you during our last conversation at my house and I know that you loved me very much. It will take time but I know things will be okay because in your own way you prepared us all for what was to come. I am okay and have made peace with this because you were very ready and prepared. I will forever love you and respect you for your life and the lessons that you taught me along the way. I feel blessed to have had you in my life and in my corner for 27 years. You will forever be in my prayers, thoughts and dreams. I know that you are with our Savior teaching some hand dance classes and having fun. Love you always Voni P.S. when Vonnifications Salons/ Spa open there doors it will be dedicated to you.###imported-begin###voni###imported-end##

“ Junie, Ms. Jimmie, and Janice: I am sorry that I did not come to the house, but Eball told me about Janet's passing an hour before the wake. Therefore, I rushed home to change clothes, and I did make it to the funeral. Nevertheless, I do not know what to say or where to start, because we all go back more than 40-years, from roller skating, baseball, and the birth of all our children. I still remember the first time I saw Janet and Janice many years ago; two little girls coming to Marty's Store, and from that day, we remained friends. I will never forget the smile. The smile was always there, nomatter where I saw Janet. I could go on and on, but 40-years is too much time to cover. So, I will end by saying that I love you all, and may God bless you and keep you. Friends until the Earth burns away. Tyrone.##imported-begin##Tyrone Emanuel Murray, Sr.##imported-end##
