

Janet E. McDaniel

December 20, 1952 - July 17, 2015

Janet Elaine McDaniel was born on Dec.20, 1952 in Baltimore, Maryland to the late Samuel W. Slabaugh and Lettie L. Adams. On July 17, 2015 after a lengthy illness Janet closed her eyes and found peace. She received her education in the Baltimore School System. After completing high school, Janet pursued her passion of caring for others and obtained a license as a registered nurse. She worked for many years at Liberty Medical Center. Janet carried out her duties with compassion and understanding, always going the extra mile for her patients.

On Feb.13, 1988, Janet was married to husband Charles Frank McDaniel who proceeds her in death. Frank was instrumental in helping to raise Janet's two children Pamela Odoms and the late Theodore Prince 3rd.

Janet was a loved mother and grandmother, friend and confidant, not only to her own family but also her extended family. Janet was a giving person , kind, caring and comforting. Her door was always open for those who needed it.

She leaves to cherish her memories, one brother Kenneth Slabaugh, daughter Pamela Odoms. Her extended children Tony. Jennifer, Nakiva, Natosha, Craig. Six granddaughters Phoebe, Cheyanne, Shonte, Chantel, Dominique and Erykah. Five grandsons Micheal, Theodore 4th, Corey, Carl, and the late Christopher. Seven great grandsons Corey jr., Khalil, Tyler, Kyleac, Ta'shawn, Ciyon, Coron, and one great granddaughter Dakota. And a host of relatives and friends.
