

Janet R. Cofield

September 27, 1958 - April 3, 2005

Janet Rinna Cofield, affectionately known as “Renee,” departed this life on April 3, 2005. She was born to Joseph W. and the late Lula J. Tinkler on September 27, 1958. Renee accepted Christ as Lord and Savior and worshipped at New Psalmist. She was educated in the public school systems of Baltimore and Washington, DC. Renee and Clarence Butler married in May, 1976. Of their union, was born one daughter, Lena Butler, on December 26, 1977. Later, Renee remarried to Alphonse Cofield in April, 1991. Renee previously worked with the Environmental Protection Agency in Washington, DC. She also worked for several banks in the Baltimore area, including the Bank of America, Bank One, and Chevy Chase Bank before becoming employed with the Federal Reserve Bank, where she worked at the time of her death. Renee loved to cook and took the responsibility to cater many family events. She desired to open her own catering business. She had a love for children. Not only did she love her daughter and rarely missed an occasion to keep her two grandchildren, Keyera and Jalen, but she was always in the company of many neighborhood children. She loved to mentor and advise them. Her door was always open to them. Renee’s warm smile and gentle-spirit will be greatly missed. She was predeceased in death by her sister, Theodesa, and step-mother, Delores M. Tinkler. She leaves to cherish her loving memory: her husband, Alphonse; one daughter, Lena; two grandchildren, Keyera and Jalen; her father, Joseph W. Tinkler; five sisters, Laura A. Perkins, Burna McCollum, Beatrice Wright, JoAnn and Muriel Tinkler;

“ The Lord will not put more on you than you can bear, for you must remember to live is Christ but to die is gain. My heartfelt prayers go out to you and your family, Past Master Tinkler in this time of despair. Although we will never understand the reason why, we must know that this is part of God's Master plan. He has called your precious Janet home from labor to reward. Weep not for her in tears of sorrow but in knowing that there will come a day when we will meet again, in that great getting up morning, Soon and very soon. Be encouraged and hold on to your memories but more importantly hold on to God's unchanging hand. Bro. David Miller- Mt. Horeb Lodge 24 F&AM Prince Hall Affiliated###imported-begin###*Bro.
