

Janet Delores Smith

May 9, 1949 - February 23, 2012

Janet Delores Smith was born on May 9, 1949 in New York City. She was born to the late Thomas Smith and the late Sylvia Smith Daniels. Janet departed this life on February 23, 2012 after a lengthy illness.

Janet was educated in the Baltimore City Public School Systems and attended some college. She worked as a Data Processor for both Automatic Data Processing (ADP) and the Baltimore County Police Department where she retired after many years of employment. She was also a member of the Eastern Stars.

Janet enjoyed watching the Soap Operas and shopping on QVC and HSN. She also enjoyed her computer games, crossword puzzles and listening to music. Because Janet was kind, loyal and friendly she had many friends and associates. She loved people and she opened up her home to anyone in need; she also embraced the deaf community. Janet was a member of the Greater Gethsemane Missionary Baptist Church. As a member Janet was a part of the Discipleship class and Seniorship ministry. She was a faithful member until her illness prevented her from attending.

Those surviving to cherish her memory are: her children, Aaron Thornton, Sr., Dana Smith and Kisha Johnson-Dyson; One daughter-in-law, Kim Thornton; One son-in-law, Butch Dyson; Six grandchildren, Davon Smith, Ashley and Vernon Fonseca, Aaron, Brandon and Shannon Thornton; Two great-grandchildren, Arionna Fonseca and Megeal Mills; Two brothers, Warren Smith and Robert Daniels, Jr; and One sister-in-law, Bernadine McBride-Smith. She had several devoted caretakers, including Nate Curtis; devoted Uncle and Aunt, George and Mildred Jackson; and devoted friend, Phil Cruz. She had a host of aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and cousins and other close relatives and friends.

She was preceded in death by her sister Yvette Hill Caldwell.

“ To my dear niece Jane I have watched you grow thru the years and you were such a blessing to our family for you to be a part of us. I love you and wish that I could have been there with you thru your sickness but my love has always been with you and your family. Now that you are with God and your mom and sister I know that you are in a better place without the sickness and pain that you have suffered. God Bless you and keep you in his loving arms until we meet again. I love you very much. Uncle George, Aunt Sylvia and family.

“ I'm so sorry for your loss and would like to offer my condolences to your family. Death is such a terrible thing for a family to go through, I actually lost my mom 3yrs ago. I'm truly grateful that I have the truth about death and look forward to the future when there will be "a resurrection of both the righteous and the unrighteous."—ACTS 24:15. I'm sure you would love to see your dead loved one again in the coming Paradise here on earth! Again so sorry for your loss!!
