“ Today I decided to call my past supervisor who I loved!! I had not spoke to her in a little over two years, but today she weighed heavy on my mind. I called and heard someone else's voice on her voicemail so I decided to look her up online and I came across her obituary. It's heartbreaking to think such a wonderful person is no longer present to share her love and guidance. I know it's late but I give Ms. Taylor's family my condolences and want you to know that she was a wonderful person to myself and all those around her. She will truly be missed. I love you Ms. Taylor!!

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32. It is of vital importance to learn what the Bible really teaches concerning death. For more information please visit the website jw.org.

“ Janet was one of the strongest woman I have ever met, she was so caring and giving to anyone in need that she often forgot about herself. To the family thanks for sharing her with the rest of the world as she truly made a difference in each life she touched.

“ To the Taylor family. Times like these are filled with sadness, tears and questions. Take comfort in knowing that Janet will be missed but never forgotten. Her infectious smile, over the top dedication and vision will always be an inspiration, to those of us who knew and worked with her. Janet touched the lives of many children and families in the City of Richmond while working at the 13th CSU and in the community. May her "Light" forever shine and you hold dear the memories.

“ I'm sorry for your loss. Death is such a hateful and ugly event. But God's words in the Bible gives us future hope at Isaiah 25:8 where HE promises to wipe away our tears and swallow up death forever. May you find comfort from God's words in the Bible

“ I am so sorry to hear of Janet's passing. We attended Norfolk State together in the 70's. I lived off campus and Janet always allowed me to stay in her room whenever I needed. We studied together, dined together, partied together, and helped each other out. She was so full of life that she always made others smile. Friends like that you never forget. May God bless you and keep you as you remember the good times you shared.

“ I want to give my condolences to the family. Janet will be truly missed. She was like my second mother. She always wanted to see me on the right path and always offer advice as to how to improve on myself and my job. She was a wealth of knowledge and didn't mind helping anyone regardless of her situation. Everyone loved this woman. Love you Janet Taylor and you will forever be in my heart.

“ Our family would like to express condolences to your family. May you find comfort from Jehovah God's Word The Bible. He not only assures a resurrection for our dear loved ones on a restored Paradise Earth but He even promises in 1 Corinthians 15:26 that "the last enemy death will be brought to nothing". Our prayers are with your family.

“ To the family, I am so sorry for your lost. Janet was a beautiful person and friend. I have known Janet for 17 years. She was a great friend and treated me like family. I will miss her dearly. Janet helped everyone she came in contact with. She had the biggest heart and shared her soul. She was most intelligent and knew her craft. She was a wealth of knowledge. I'm saddened, but understand that heaven needed an angel.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. May "the God of all comfort" (2 Corinthians 1:3,4) comfort and soothe your heart. His promises, found in the Holy Scriptures, can offer much hope. It assures us at John 5:28,29 that our loved ones will be remembered and brought back to life in the resurrection. Please allow God's Word to strengthen you and help you to endure this most difficult time.

Natalie Prosser McCoy - February 28, 2014 at 09:42 PM

“ Jehovah God is the Creator of life. The Bible calls him "the source of life" at Psalm 36:9. He gives life and he is capable of restoring life by means of a resurrection to those who have died. God has resurrected humans in the past and he is eager to do it again. Therefore, please take comfort in the words of our Lord - Jesus Christ which says in part that "the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out" - John 5: 28, 29.
