

Janet Louise Vanderburg-Godman

April 11, 1944 - November 3, 2013

JANET LOUISE VANDERBURG GODWIN, daughter of the late Bruce and Jeanette Vanderburg whom preceded her in death. Janet was born April 11, 2044 in Mooresville, NC and called to glory November 3, 2013.

Janet received her education in Mooresville, NC and graduated from Unity High School. Soon after graduating Janet accepted her religious ministry at an early age at Stewart Chapel Methodist Church in Mooresville, NC.

In 1961, Janet moved to Baltimore MD and entered into the United States Army Reserved, where she performed multiple duties for over 25 years in the Quartermaster field. Janet received several rankings including Master Sergeant in Fort Meade, Md.

Janet was a member of numerous churches around the Baltimore Metropolitan area. Janet was ordained in 1999 as an Elder. Her current church home was the Agape House under the leadership of Elder Robinson. Janet achieved many great accomplishments: special needs advocated for many individuals with mental health care complications, Spiritual Drug Alcohol Addiction Counselor, Financial Advisor, Outreach Coordinator, Grant Proposal Writer, Mental Hygiene Specialist, and Foster Care Provider for numerous individuals. Janet's ministry was specific to outreach where she helped everyone she came in contact with.

Janet leaves to cherish her loving memories: a devoted husband of 40 years Melvin Peters, three daughters Bennette R. Winston of Covington GA, Ben Vanderburge and Janice L. Godwin. Three sons Thomas E. Epps, Reginald L. Godwin and Samuel E. Godwin, two step children Stacia Coleman and Melvin Jr., two sisters Joyce Brandon and Julia Vanderburg, one brother Bruce Vanderburg, nineteen grandchildren, twelve greatgrands, one great greatgrand, and a host of family and friends that loved her dearly.
