

Janice A. Jackson

May 3, 1952 - April 18, 2003

I, Janice A. Jackson, devoted daughter of Elizabeth A. and James L. Neal, was born on May 3, 1952 in Elkins, West Virginia, later on to be raised by Elizabeth A. (Neal) Dangerfield and George A. Dangerfield Sr. in Baltimore, Maryland. I departed this on April 18, 2003 after a brief illness. I graduated from Forest Park High in 1970. At the age of 18 the State of Maryland where I worked for the next 30 years employed me. During this time I attended Advanced Compute Technology Training and graduated Valedictorian of my class. During my younger years I was a member of Friendship Baptist Church in Dundalk and Eastern United Methodist Church. In 1997 I became a member of Faith United Baptist Church and attended until my health began to fail. I married my childhood sweetheart, Robert M. Jackson, and out of this union was born two children Angel and Karriem. I was a loving wife, a dedicated mother and daughter, and devoted grandmother, who enjoyed sewing, reading, traveling, and church. I really enjoyed my life to the fullest. I made friends everywhere I went and most of them became my life-long friends. I leave to mourn: my loving husband, Robert; son Kerrie One; daughter, Angela; two stepdaughters, Lakes and Cheryl; parents, grandparents, Mary and Edward Dangerfield; three brothers, James (Boots), Donald and George Jr.; mother-in-law, Viola Harriston; two brothers-in-law, Yates and Douglas; sister-in-law, Gwendolyn; twelve grandchildren, Keirra, Jasmine, Joquana, Niyah, Jakeem, Raheem, Lil Darriem, Lawrence, Breion, Travaughn, Drayaughn and Miesha; a special nephew, Damion Neal; a host of nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles, other relatives and friends.

(2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. “ Janice, I'm so very glad that God works in mysterious ways. For months I kept wondering why I couldn't find a house. But I thank God that for those months you and I really got a chance to know one another and become closer. I'll never forget one of the last, if not the last, conversation that you and I had when you were sitting on your beside. You know what conversation I'm talking about. I think we both understood what was in the air even though we didn't speak a word about your underlying message. How I wish we could have had more time. One night you came to me in a dream. It seemed so real and vivid. Was it? I got every word you said and I appreciated it. Love, your sister Robin.##imported-begin##Robin Neal##imported-end##

“ To the family: Sorry to hear about the loss of your dear loved one. Our family gets much solace and comfort from the Bible. The Bible answers life's most distressing questions and gives us a bright hope for the future. It assures us that God will do away with death and bring our loved ones back to us in good health. Notice this promise at Hosea 13:14- "From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness, O Sheol?" We hope this comforts you as much as it has been to us in times of great loss.##imported-begin##Hill Family##imported-end##

“ I love you so much and i miss u more then u know or maybe u do know. Every time i think of u or someone sounds like u i want to yell and cry and sometimes i do. I don't have anyone to talk to the way i talked to u. No one to ask dumb things or talk to about anything. u never mind telling me what i needed to hear or helping me have everything i needed and wanted. I will try to come to see u every day. Please watch over me and love me. I love u so much and i want you back. Please try to RIP and don't worry like u did when u were here. I don't want to die but if i have to, i will be happy knowing i am with you. “ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ Janice, I will miss seeing you and talking with you on occassion. You always had a smile and a logical way of looking at things. One of the things I loved about you was you were always about the truth. With you it wasn't gray it was black or white.(smile) I think about the good times we had dancing all night and getting up and going straight to work.(smile). I saw you the other day. I know it was you and I was so happy. I still am, I smile everytime I think of where I saw you. I won't say anymore because someone will say that I am looney. (ha,ha,ha) You looked so pretty. I love you, and I will see you when I get there. (smile). Love ya!!!!!!##imported-begin##Sandra Martin##imported-end##
