

Janice M. Bethea

October 19, 1963 - December 28, 2015

Janice Marie Bethea, daughter of the late Moses Watson Jr. and Melvina Watson was born on October 19, 1963 in Baltimore, Maryland. She departed this life suddenly on December 28, 2015.

She received her education in Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Walbrook Senior High School. She later received her Nursing Assistant Certification and worked at several nursing care facilities in Baltimore and Frederick, Maryland. She also worked at Wells Fargo Mortgage Company as a Customer Service Representative until she became unable to work. Janice was a generous, kind-hearted and friendly person. She enjoyed spending time with her family and friends. She loved and missed being able to see her grandchildren and there wasn't a day that went by that she didn't talk about them. She also missed her loved ones that preceded her in death. She loved God and in 2013 became a member of Shiloh Baptist Church of Baltimore County.

Preceding her in death are: her father, Moses Watson Jr.; sisters, Betty, Cindy, and Gloria Watson; husband, Lester Bethea; and her daughter, Victoria Jones.

She leaves to mourn: her mother, Melvina Watson; her companion, Kenneth Ouzts; stepson, Aja Dume Goode; four granddaughters, Zaahirah Richardson, Jasmine Brown, Keria Goode, and Jazel Brown; two grandsons, Jerrard

Brown Jr. and Isaiah Goode; three sisters, Barbara Moody (William), Carolyn Watson, and Cheryl Bordley; one brother, Melvin Watson (Donna); two aunts, one uncle, eight nieces, three nephews, numerous great-nieces, nephews; and a host of other relatives and friends.
