

Janice Doyle

September 13, 1945 - March 30, 2003

Janice Lenora Doyle made her celebrated entrance into the world on September 13, 1945 in Philadelphia, PA, to proud and loving parents, Archibald and Henrietta Jones, affectionately called Maya and Pop Pop. Janice was a loving, quiet, and gentle child who never complained. Janice acquired her strength from her mother and her loving nature from her father. Together they taught Janice and her older sister Irene about the importance of God, family, love, and strength of mind. Janice used the lessons that she learned from her parents to graduate from Howard University in 1968. There Janice met the love of her life, Raymond Doyle, who was attending Howard University School of Medicine. The two married on June 20, 1970. Soon afterwards Janice obtained her Masters of Arts from the University of D.C. She was also a member of Delta Sigma Theta Sorority. The loving union of Ray and Jan brought forth four beautiful children: Nicole Kelly, Alexis Dawn, Danielle Rae, and Raymond Archibald. Janice was a caring mother who would affectionately wake her children with her gentle voice singing "You are my sunshine" and put them to sleep with words of wisdom. Janice taught special education in the areas of reading and math resource in the Baltimore City Public School System for ten years. Janice was recognized throughout her teaching career for dedication, loyalty and outstanding service. She enjoyed the camaraderie of her colleagues and the challenges that her charismatic and energetic students provided. Janice was endowed with a sweet demeanor and jovial personality and she understood courage. She saw all of these qualities in her students and spoke of them fondly. As a member of St. Peter's Episcopal Church, Janice's strong faith in God helped her through her struggle with cancer for the last sixteen years. God allowed her to live a productive life just long enough to see her only son through his eighteenth birthday and her three daughters, Nicole, Alexis, and Danielle become a veterinarian, science teacher, and a dean's list college student respectively. The values and character that she instilled in her children and love she provided to her husband are everlasting. God recognized the struggle that this wife, mother, daughter and friend was enduring, so on March 30, 2003 at 10:45 p.m. He sent an angel with instructions to bring her, his loving servant, home. Janny, as her husband lovingly called her, now rests peacefully in heaven with the rest of the angels. Her warm smile, caring soul, and laughter will continue to shed God's light through us all. Janice L. Doyle leaves to celebrate her life; beloved husband, Raymond; four wonderful children, Nicole, Alexis, Danielle, and Ray; insightful parents, Henrietta and Archibald Jones; caring sister, Irene; brother-in-law, Walter Closson; sister-in-law, Beverly Shropshire; nephews, Phillip Shropshire, Forrest Closson, MD and Carey Closson, MD and their wives; sister in Christ, Cathy; brothers in Christ, Rudy and Robert Taylor and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ Healing happens slowly over weeks and months and years and even then, there will be days when memories call fresh tears. A song, a scent, or photograph keeps your heart in touch; with all that you so treasured in the one you miss so much. Live with your good memories, as they will add to your comfort, which comes from knowing that your grief is shared and understood.##imported-begin##The March Family and Staff##imported-end##

“ To the family of Janice Doyle: Sorry to hear of the loss of your dear loved one. Our family finds much comfort in the Bible. One such comforting verse is Hosea 13:14-"From the hand of Sheol I shall redeem them; from death I shall recover them. Where are your stings, O Death? Where is your destructiveness , O Sheol?" This means that one day soon death will be done away with and our loved will be brought back to life. Life then will be without the sickness, sorrow and suffering that we experience now. We hope this thought comforts you.##imported-begin##Hill Family##imported-end##
