

Janice E. Coleman

May 3, 1928 - February 20, 2006

Janice Elizabeth Money Coleman was born in Baltimore, Maryland on May 3, 1928. The only daughter of the late Ruby Elizabeth Collins and Edward B. Money. Janice was educated in the Baltimore City Public Schools and graduated from Douglass High School in 1947. In 1947 while working at the New Albert Movie Theater, she met the Love of her Life, Garth W. Coleman, they were married in 1951. From this union they were blessed with two children, a son, Glenn Coleman and a daughter Donna Lee-Peters. Janice had an active life and enjoyed traveling, bargain shopping and playing games of chance. Janice was a faithful member of John Wesley United Methodist Church. She loved her Pastor and Church Family. Janice was actively involved in and supported all activities of the church. She was a member of the Altar Guild, the Heritage and Mass Choirs, the United Methodist Women, The World Day of Prayer Committee, The Lay Leadership Ministry and the Tuesday Evening Bible Class. Janice also volunteered at the Clothes Closet and the Soup Kitchen. Janice was active in the Douglass High School Alumni Association and The Douglass High School Alumni Class of February 1947. She and Garth opened their home for Alumni meetings as well as helping to plan trips and other activities. On Monday, February 20, 2006, several days before the 55th Anniversary of Garth and Janice, God reached down, took Janice by her hands, and led her home to glory. She leaves to rejoice in her life and cherish her memory, her children, Glenn and Donna; one grandson, Shawn Peters; a son-in-law, John Peters, Jr.; a brother, E. Benjamin Money and a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends.

“ I send my condolences to the family. There is also a comfort found in the Bible that I hope will help you as it helps me. Acts 15:28,29 describes a "resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous". So you will have the chance to see your loved one again. Also, conditions on earth will soon be much better (Rev. 21:4). May you be comforted.##imported-begin##Kendra A.##imported-end##

“ My sincere condolences to the family and friends of Mrs. Coleman. Death is such an unnatural thing since we all long for our loved ones to be with us forever, and God knows the pain we feel when we lose a loved one. It was never his purpose for people to die, and very soon he will wipe the tears from our eyes when he brings a permanent end to sickness, old age, and death. Rev21:3,4, Isaiah25:8, and John5:28,29 I hope these scriptures and the promise of the resurrection comfort your family at this time.##imported-begin##R Johnaon##imported-end##

“ My deepest sympathy during your time of sorrow but knows that the God of comfort is with you all during this time of tribulation. (2Corinthian 1:3-4) Due to the many unforeseen occurrences that brings tragedy to our lives Jehovah God promises one day soon Death will be no more (Rev 21:3-4) and his son have been given the authority to bring all those in the memorial tombs back to life. John 5:28-29 What a wonderful prospect for our future.##imported-begin##Carter##imported-end##

“ Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. I too have lost loved ones in death. Even though we know that death is inevitable, it is still difficult to accept. Death was not something that God intended for us. The thought of death is always distasteful and it always will be because Jehovah God has created within us the keen desire to live forever. We never get used to it. We feel deep down in our hearts that this should not happen because, “Even time indefinite he (God) has put in their heart,” says Ecclesiastes 3:11. One of the wonderful parts of his plan is the hope of the resurrection of dead loved ones. (John 5:25, 28, 29). Please be assured that Jehovah God loves us and wants the best for us. Take comfort in the promise that he has given us at Rev. 21: 3-5 of a new earth where there will be no more death.##imported-begin##Senita Swann##imported-end##

“ To the family, my deepest condolences. May you cherish his memory. The Bible has words of comfort. At 1 Cor. 15:26 states, "As the last enemy death is to be brought to nothing." God has promised to do away with death and the pain that it causes. May these words be of comfort to the family.##imported-begin##Sean##imported-end##
