

Janice L. Evans

October 22, 1940 - December 13, 2011

Janice Lucinda Evans, the daughter of the late Buster and Velma R. Savage was born on October 22, 1940 in Baltimore City, Maryland. She departed this life on Tuesday, December 13, 2011 after a lengthy illness.

Janice was educated in the public schools of Baltimore City, Maryland. She graduated from Paul Laurence Dunbar High School in 1958. After high school, Janice and several friends formed a social club called "The Sophisticates". They had social gatherings and gave out baskets during the holidays. The remaining members are friends today.

In 1966, Janice moved to Akron, Ohio and married Michael David Harris. They adopted a little boy, Damon Michael Harris in 1971. The marriage lasted seven years. Janie had a long work career. Most of her work experience was in finance. In Ohio, Jan worked in the finance office of Ohio State University. Also, while there, she worked for the Goodyear Tire Company.

She moved back to Baltimore and had these work experiences: the finance office of a local bank, and the invoice department of the Buick Car Dealership. Her last work experience was in the export division of Crown Cork and Seal Company. She worked there until she retired because of health issues.

Janice was blessed with a second chance at happiness when she married

Richard Evans, Jr. in 1988. They were married twenty-two years until he passed away in 2010.

Janice was raised in the Baptist Church. She was a member of New Antioch Baptist Church of Randallstown, MD. She was unable to attend during the last few years because of failing health.

Janice enjoyed reading, cross word and number puzzles. She loved to play Bingo and was a regular at the Pikesville Community Center until her health failed.

After a long illness, she went to be with the Lord early Tuesday morning, December 13, 2011. She leaves to mourn and cherish her memory; her son, Damon Harris; stepdaughter, Naomi (Jackie) Evans; her step-grandson, Terrance Porter; sister, Sylvia Stokes; brothers, Michael Savage (Carolyn Joyce Savage) and Larry Savage (Denise Savage); sister-in-law, Queen Esther Ovid (Clifford Ovid); uncles, Ernest Ward (Helen Ward) and Elwood Ward; niece, Monique Savage; nephews, Derrick Savage, Larry Savage, Jr. and Michael Savage; and a host of other relatives and friends and a special friend and neighbor, Beneta Raffell.

“ Trusting in Jehovah's Promises will give you comfort for your sorrow, courage for each day, strength to face this journey, His Word to light your way and His Peace to fill your heart. My Deepest Sympathy to the family.

(Psalm 55:22) Throw your burden upon Jehovah himself, And he himself will sustain you. Never will he allow the righteous one to totter.

M.Johnson - December 15, 2011 at 07:53 AM

“ We the March Family and Staff wish to extend our deepest and heartfelt sympathy in the passing of your loved one. Our prayers go out to you and your family in your time of loss. We know and understand that you have received many expressions of love and we will continue to lift you up in prayer. May the memories you cherish of brighter and happier days help to ease your sorrow and comfort you always.
