

Janice Evelyn Willis

May 5, 1950 - January 27, 2008

The Obituary For His anger is but for moment, but His favor is for a lifetime or in His favor is Life. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy comes in the morning. Psalm 30:5 Janice Evelyn Willis, was born May 3, 1950 in Henrico County to Blanche Willis Jones and the late Bernard Winston. She was preceded in death by her son, Dion Lamont Willis and step-father, Russell Jones. At the noon hour Sunday, January 27, 2008, the Lord called the spirit of Janice home to be one of His newest angels. Janice accepted our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ at the age of 12, at Pilgrim Journey Baptist Church, Richmond, Virginia. Pilgrim is where she began her spiritual walk via Sunday School, Monday Night Bible Studies as a teenager, Vacation Bible School and Sunday Service. Janice was blessed to grow up in a very spiritual home where her great-grandmother held Wednesday night Bible Study and a grandmother and mother who ensured church was a part of her life. She attended Vandervall Elementary School and Virginia Randolph High School. Because of her love for children, Janice was employed at Country Day Care as day care teacher for several years. She was also a caregiver for many children. Her favorite past time was solving word puzzles and taking family photos. Because of her love for photography, her family is left with wonderful memories of the entire family. Janice was truly loved by all who met her. She will always greeted everyone in such a congenial manner, full of smiles and was always willing to do whatever she could for her family. We love you Janice and will truly miss you. We accept that you are in a better place now. PEACE be with you. We thank GOD for giving you to us 57 years. She leaves to cherish her memory mother, Blanche Jones; one sister, Paulette Willis Clarke; four brothers, Russell Jr., Stanley, Kennon and Frank Jones; five grandchildren; one daughter-in-law, Delois Tijuania Willis; a host of aunts, one uncle; cousins, one devoted, Tara Lewis; and friends, one devoted friend, Roscoe Lockett.

Tribute Wall

“ Janice Evelyn Willis

October 13, 2022 at 08:33 AM

“ Dear family, I send my warmest sympathy. Death is never easy to deal with, but comforting words from our friends and family can help us get through the mourning period, 1 Thessalonians 5:4 tells us; 'speak consolingly to the depressed souls, support the weak, be long-suffering toward all.' Another great help is continuing to read and study the bible to understand the wonderful hope Almighty God Jehovah has in store for us at Acts 24:15, where there will be a resurrection of the righteous and the righteous.##imported-begin##Gonsalves##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am so very sorry that you lost your dear loved one. Sadly, death continues to stalk all families, and it is so devastating to lose a loved one whom you shared many years of life and happiness with. My heart goes out to you, and please keep this comforting thought in mind whenever you are feeling especially down. Our loving father Jehovah God promises at Rev 21:4, "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away. One day, thanks to the loving sacrifice of our savior Jesus christ, we will have the opportunity to be reunited with our loved ones again. John 5:28,29##imported-begin##R Johnson##imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ To the family, I offer my sincere sympathy. Although it may seem like there is no comfort during this period, there really is a source of comfort for you. It is found through God's Word, the Bible. Please take a minute and read John 5:28,29 and Acts 24:15. There it highlights the wonderful resurrection hope Jehovah holds out to us all. He is the comforter and promises at 2 Corinthians 1:3,4 to "comfort us in all our tribulation."###imported-begin##Gwen Winston###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ ###imported-begin##Chris###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM

“ I am sorry for your loss. I knew Ms.Janice when I worked at "Country Daycare" and her granddaughter was in my class. She was a very sweet and funny lady. I will keep you and your family in my Prayers.###imported-begin##Attonnavie (Mrs. Toni)###imported-end##

July 02, 2010 at 02:21 PM