

Janice Alease West

July 20, 1949 - June 6, 2012

Janice Alease West, 62, of Richmond, Virginia departed this life, June 6, 2012. She was preceded in death by her mother, Beatrice M. West and stepfather, William West, Jr.

She graduated in 1968 from Armstrong High School in Richmond, Virginia and Cortez Peters Business School in Washington, DC in 1970.

Janice was a member of Fourth Baptist Church. For more than 20 years, she was employed by Woodward and Lothrop department store in Washington, DC and Macy's department store (formerly Hecht's) for over 10 years.

Janice was a very loving, sweet, family oriented person. She loved and lived to be with her daughter and grandchildren in Philadelphia. When she became a grandmother, she was proud to fill that role. She enjoyed traveling and spending time with family and friends. At every family event she was famous for making her deviled eggs and potato salad. Janice certainly loved to cook for her family. She had a very delightful sense of you, and enjoyed teasing and playing tricks on her loved ones. Janice loved life and definitely enjoyed living it.

Janice was a woman of many great qualities and shared her wisdom with whoever was in her presence. Besides being a giving and loving person.

She leaves to cherish her loving memory a daughter, LaTonya Johnson; three grandchildren; father, Floyd Epps; three sisters, Mary Jones, Christine Harris (Tim) and Earline Walker (Kermit); one brother, Robert West and a host of other relatives and friends.

“ I am so sorry for your lost. Losing a loved one is never easy. How comforting it is to know that Jehovah God has provided a promise for us all. The promise is found at Revelation 21:4, it says "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away." Yes Jehovah promises to do away with all the suffering we face today, how loving and comforting it is to know that.
