“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your loved one. My husband and I have received much comfort and strength from the Bible as we have experienced various tragedies. One such comforting verse is Acts 24:15- "There is going to be a resurrection." This shows that there is much hope for dead loved ones returnig to life with no more death, sickness, sorrow or pain. (Isaiah 65:17, Second Peter 3:13) May you also receive comfort and strength as you think deeply about this loving hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ To the family of Mrs Graves I offer my heartfelt sympathy. May you receive much comfort from those who care at this grievous time in your life. I have lost many family members myself, and I find much solace from the bible scriptures. Rev 21:3,4 is a favorite of mine which says: "With that I heard a loud voice from the throne say "Look! "The tent of God is with mankind, and he will reside with them, and they will be his peoples. "And God himself will be with them. "And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. "The former things have passed away." Then verse 5 says of Jehovah, "Look!, I am making all things new." So with that promise Jehovah lets us know that a worldwide change for the better is coming soon, because at that time there will be no more sickness, violence, or death; and Micah 4;4 says that each one sit under his own vine and own fig tree with no one making them tremble. Psalm 37,11 tells us that the meek shall inherit a peaceful world, which the dead will benefit from as well. We have the wonderful promise of a resurrection for our loved ones, according to Acts 24,15 and John 5:28,29 which tells us that all in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out. I hope that these scriptures bring you hope and comfort as they have comforted me.##imported-begin##R
