“ To the family, Please accept my condolences. May you find comfort in the following scriptures: (Please take time to read) John 11:38-44- Jesus resurrected Lazarus back to the earth. Acts 24:15- "there is going to be a resurrection of both the righteous and unrighteous." 1Cor 15:26- God is going to remove our enemy death. Almighty God Jehovah provides us with comfort from his word the bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Howard##imported-end##

“ Please accept my condolences for the loss of your young loved one. Be assured that our heavenly Father Jehovah does "not take any delight in the death of someone" according to Ezekiel 18:32. This reveals that Almighty God does not take our loved ones away from us. Also, Jehovah God promises a resurrection for many of our dead loved ones. May you receive much comfort and strength every time you think about this wonderful hope found in the Bible.##imported-begin##Mrs. Sharon Hill##imported-end##

“ I would like to express my deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. It is only natural that we yearn to see our loved ones again especially when death overtakes someone so young. We all look forward to a time when Jehovah God will wipe out every tear from our eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore (Rev. 21:4). The Bible teaches about a future time when all those in the memorial tombs will come out by means of a resurrection to life on a paradise earth (John5:28-29, Psalm37:11,29). May you find solace in the God of all comfort (2Cor1:3-4) and he will sustain you during this difficult time (Psalm55:22). Warmest regards.##imported-begin##C. Murphy##imported-end##

“ Matthew 5:3-5 Blessed are the poor in spirit, for theirs is the kingdom of heaven. Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be comforted. Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the earth. In this time of bereavement GOD is with you always, so hold your heads up because she's in a better place now where she won't have to cry, hurt, or even worry no more. For this is a time of celebration because she has gone on to be with the LORD in that great golden heaven.##imported-begin##Minister Joseph L. Carroll, Jr##imported-end##

“ To Shelia & her family... I am deeply crushed by the lost you are suffering. Quazia was such a nice person to be around and I will always remember the beautiful smile she kept on her face. Everytime I would come to the hair salon she would always have a glow and a smile that could brighten up anyone's day. Shelia please know that you can call me or my mom for anything. We are here for you and we are grieving with you over the lost of such a wonderful person. Quazia will always be in my heart and even though I only knew of her in the shop atmosphere, she really touched my heart. There had been many times when I felt like giving up and committing suicide, and on this one particular visit to the shop to get my mom (Cheryl), I had it all planned out. I knew how and when I was going to do it and all I was waiting for was to get home. Then I can in the shop and I felt so much love in there and when I saw Quazia's face and her smile and I began to think to myself, if she can walk around with such a beautiful smile and demeanor about herself...then I should too. That day changed my life and I truly believe that it was God's way of showing me love through a person I knew so little about. God spoke to me and changed my heart through a simple smile from Quaiza and I thank God for sending me her way each and everyday, because I may not have been her myself. So I hope you find comfort in knowing that Quazia saved a life unknowingly just as God wanted his Angel in what may seem as such an untimely manner. God Bless and you and your family are in my prayers.##imported-begin##Shakila(Cheryl's daughter)##imported-end##
